This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

BARTON LIBRARY.

PART I.

The Shakespeare Collection.

COLLECTED WORKS.

1. Shakespeare, William, 1564–1616. Mr. William Shakespeares Comedies, Histories, & Tragedies. Published according to the True Originall Copies. London: Printed by Isaac Iaggard, and Ed. Blount. 1623. Portrait by Martin Droeshout on title-page. F° G.174.1

For the collation of the first four folios, together with the owners, prices, etc. of various copies, see Bohn's Lowndes, Allibone's "Dictionary of authors," "The American Bibliopolist," 1870, and Winsor's "Bibliography of the original quartos and folios." Mr. Barton printed in 1860, privately, a description of this copy, which is the fullest printed record of the condition of a copy ever made.

This copy was bought by Mr. Barton of Thomas Rodd, the London bookseller, in 1845, standing No. 8,127 in his catalogue for that year; and £110 was paid for it. Rodd received it in an old, but not original binding, and was careful, that, while it was in the binder's hands, it should neither be cut nor the ink-marks or other stains removed. It was simply passed through sized water to strengthen the paper.

It has two cancelled leaves in "As you Like It," pp. 203 [193], 194, 203, 194 [204], but the changes are not of textual importance. The genuine leaves from another copy were inserted beside them in binding: "So that the book now presents a singular curiosity," says Rodd, "which, as I believe, exists in no other copy." As Lowndes had mentioned a copy belonging to James Baker with the same peculiarity, Mr. Barton, in a note to the printed account of his folio, considers it "not improbable that Mr. Baker's copy and this may be one and the same." The view was, however, set aside when Mr. Lenox printed the collation of his copies the next year, wherein it appears that his copy, bearing date 1622, was the Baker copy, and the same described by Dibdin earlier (without noting the peculiarity of date), as the Lichfield copy, "perfect and genuine, in old calf binding." As this copy is described as possessing the genuine leaves also (which the Barton copy did not have originally), it is, doubtless, the one owned by Mr. Lenox, though this gentleman's collation shows that there are in his copy four other instances of doubling the pages where errors had been made in pagination. R. Grant White had access to the Barton copy during his work on his edition of Shakespeare which is dedicated to Mr. Barton; and he characterizes it as "admirable," in his Preface. Its dimensions are 13 1-10 inches by 8 4-10.

2. Same. [Printed by E. and J. Wright. London. 1807.] F° G.4020.7 ; G.4020.9

Mr. Barton, in a note in his catalogue, says that this reprint was edited by F. Douce. The paper has the water-mark Shakespeare, J. Whatman, 1806, 1807, and there are additional signature numbers. Upcott says there are three hundred and sixty-eight errors in it (see "Notes and Queries," vii, 1853, p. 47), of which about forty are important (see same, third series, vii, 1865, p. 130).

G.4020.9 contains only King John, Richard II, Henry IV, part 1, 2, Winter's tale, Othello, Antony and Cleopatra, bound separately, with the exception of the two parts of Henry IV, interleaved and with numerous manuscript notes.

3. Same. With corrections, annotations, and illustrations, by John Britton. London: printed for Isaac Jaggard and Ed. Blount. 1623. Reprinted by E. and J. Wright, for Vernor and Hood. 1808. 4 v. Interleaved. Plates. Portraits. F° G.4020.8

Contents. 1. Memoirs, commendations, portraits, poems, essays, etc. of, and relating to, Shakespeare. 2. Comedies. 3. Histories. 4. Tragedies.

This is Vernor and Hood's reprint, interleaved, with title-pages printed especially for these volumes, and dated 1808, while the water-mark of the paper with which it is interleaved is 1813. There is a portrait (Stratford bust) on the title-page of vol. 1, and vignettes on the other three. The text has been collated chiefly with that of the second folio, and many notes from Dr. Sherwen's MSS. have been added, also 35 different portraits of Shakespeare, engravings of his monuments, portraits of his commentators, scenes in the dramas, costume figures of the actors, etc. Vol. 1 contains a manuscript index to the portraits and illustrations in that volume, together with various prospectuses, title-pages, and notes of Britton's relating to an edition of Shakespeare's works, to be published by him. The illustrations of the plays are mostly taken from the editions of Bell, Cawthorn, and Boydell. In vol. 2, p. 162, is a water-color drawing, Shakespeare as Shylock.

4. Shakespeare. A reprint of his collected works as put forth in 1623. London: printed for L. Booth. 1862–64. 3 v. Illustrated. Portrait. Sm. 4° G.166.1 ; 4595.6

Contents. 1. The comedies. 1862. 2. The histories. 1863. 3. The tragedies. 1864.

5. Shakespeare. The first folio edition of 1623. Reproduced under the immediate supervision of Howard Staunton. From the originals in the libraries of Bridgewater House and the British Museum, by photo-lithography. London: published by Day and son. [1866.] F 2590.8

1 27. 2. 78.

Published in sixteen parts. In minor details, its accuracy has been questioned, as the process failed always to preserve the bar in the small e's, giving them the appearance of c, etc. The title is taken from the cover.

6. The first edition of Shakespeare. The works of William Shakespeare in reduced facsimile from the famous first folio edition of 1623. With an introduction by J. O. Halliwell-Phillipps. London: Chatto and Windus. 1876 [1875]. Portrait. Sm. 8° G.85.2

The Introduction consists of xi [7] pp. The reduction is by "a photographic process." "A reduced reproduction of Mr. Staunton's Folio." Ingleby. "Shakespeare, the man and the book," p. 114.

7. Mr. William Shakespeares Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Published according to the true Originall Copies. The second Impression. London, Printed by Tho. Cotes, for Robert Allot, and are to be sold at the signe of the Blacke Beare in Pauls Church-yard. 1632. Portrait by Droeshout on title-page. F° G.174.2; G.174.3

G.174.2 belonged to Col. Stanley and afterwards to Heber, and cost, in 1835, 16 guineas. The last leaf is inlaid. Size, 13 inches by 9 1-16.

G.174.3 is known as the Utterson copy, the Utterson arms being stamped on the sides. The verses are inlaid. It cost, in 1850, £21. Size, 12 7-16 inches by 8 6-16. J. R. Smith writes, June 28, 1859, "It differs from all other copies known. The leaf in the introduction, 'Vpon the Effigies,' has a considerable number of literal alterations. It is evidently a production of the same printer by the interchanged letters used; the ornament at the top being the same, the ornamental S and W capitals being different [though of a style similar to others in the body of the book]; and it is printed on different [and thicker] paper. I can only account for it in this way: at the close of the sale of the impression, copies were on hand wanting this leaf; and it was printed to make them perfect." The proper leaf "Vpon the Effigies" was supplied from another copy, and is now inserted after the variation leaf.

8. Mr. William Shakespeares Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Published according to the true Original Copies. The Third Impression. London, Printed for Philip Chetwinde, 1663. Portrait by Droeshout. F° G.174.4

Bought at Harward's sale, 1858, for £51 9s. Size, 13 inches by 8 5-8. The verses and title are inlaid. The following leaf is mended in the margin.

9. Mr. William Shakespear's Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Published according to the true Original Copies. The third Impression. And unto this Impression is added seven Playes, never before Printed in Folio, viz. Pericles Prince of Tyre. The London Prodigall. The History of Thomas Ld Cromwell. Sir John Oldcastle Lord Cobham. The Puritan Widow. A York-shire Tragedy. The Tragedy of Locrine. Printer's device. London, Printed for P. C. 1664. Portrait by Droeshout. F° G.174.5

Bought of Thorpe, in 1835, for 15 guineas. The portrait and verses are from the fourth edition. The last leaf is pieced at the inner edge; and the title is backed. The Kinnear arms are upon the side. Size, 12 15-16 inches by 8 1-2.

10. Mr. William Shakespear's Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Published according to the true Original Copies. Unto which is added, Seven Plays, Never before Printed in Folio: viz. Pericles Prince of Tyre. The London Prodigal. The History of Thomas Lord Cromwel. Sir John Oldcastle Lord Cobham. The Puritan Widow. A Yorkshire Tragedy. The Tragedy of Locrine. The Fourth Edition. London, Printed for H. Herringman, and are to be sold by Joseph Knight and Francis Saunders, at the Anchor in the Lower Walk of the New Exchange. 1685. Portrait by Droeshout. F° G.174.6

Bought in 1834 for 4 guineas. On the side are the letters "J. L. G.", surmounted by a lion supporting an upright howitzer. Page 225 is not, as Lowndes says, misprinted 224. Size, 14 1-4 inches by 9 3-16.

G.60a1.17, no. 9, is a fragment of this folio, pp. 213–256, containing the spurious plays, with the exception of the first leaf of each play and the last seven pages of Locrine.

11. The works of Mr. William Shakespear: in 6 v. Adorn'd with cuts. Revis'd and corrected, with an account of the life and writings of the author. By N. Rowe. London: J. Tonson. 1709. 3324 pp. Portraits. Illustrations. 8° G.4021.2

Contents. 1. Dedication; Life; Tempest; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure; Comedy of errors; Much ado about nothing; Love's labour's lost. 2. Midsummer-night's dream; Merchant of Venice; As you like it; Taming of the shrew; All's well that ends well; Twelfth night; Winter's tale. 3. King John; Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V; Henry VI, part 1, 2. 4. Henry VI, part 3; Richard III; Henry VIII; Troilus and Cressida; Coriolanus; Titus Andronicus. 5. Romeo and Juliet; Timon of Athens; Julius Cæsar; Macbeth; Hamlet; King Lear; Othello. 6. Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline; Pericles of Tyre; The London prodigal; Thomas Lord Cromwell; Sir John Oldcastle; The puritan; A Yorkshire tragedy; Locrine.

This is the first edited, as well as the first octavo edition of Shakespeare, also the first illustrated by pictures other than his portrait. There are neither prefaces nor notes. The portraits are, on the engraved title-pages, the Chandos, engraved by M. Van der Gucht, and, in vol. 1, one designed by B. Arlaud, and engraved by G. Duchange. The plates, of which there is one to each play, are curious, as illustrating the theatrical costume of the day. The plays have separate title-pages.

12. The works of Mr. William Shakespear. Volume the seventh. London: E. Curll. 1710. (14), lxxii, 472, (4) pp. Plate. 8° G.4021.2.7

Contents. Dedication by S. N.; Advertisement; Essay on the art, rise, and progress of the stage in Greece, Rome, and England, by Charles Gildon; Glossary; Venus and Adonis; Tarquin and Lucrece; Poems; Remarks on the plays; Remarks on the poems, by C. Gildon; References to the classic authors, etc.; Table.

The seventh volume, according to Notes and Queries, 2d series, vol. 12, p. 349, "is one of the piratical productions of Edmund Curll. The essay is by Charles Gildon," or, according to Rodd's catalogue, by Gildon and Dr. Geo. Sewell. This volume has 1710 upon the title-page; but the independent titles of Venus and Adonis and Lucrece read 1709. That Rowe had no part in publishing this volume, would perhaps appear from the last paragraph of his Life of Shakespeare. "There is a book of poems publish'd in 1640, under the name of Mr. William Shakespear; but as I have but very lately seen it, without an opportunity of making any judgment upon it, I won't pretend to determine, whether it be his or no." It includes those spurious poems which are contained in the edition to which he refers.

13. The works of Mr. William Shakespear. Volume the ninth. London, printed by J. Darby for E. Curll. 1714. Illustrated. 12° G.4061.6

Contents. 9. Essay by C. Gildon; Glossary; Venus and Adonis; Lucrece; Poems; Remarks.

Printed to accompany Rowe's second edition in 9 v., published in 1714.

14. The works of Shakespear. In 6 v. Collated and corrected by the former editions, by Mr. Pope. London: J. Tonson. 1723, 1725. Portraits. 4° G.4021.1; 4591.1

Contents. 1. Preface; Life of Shakespear by N. Rowe; Instrument; Verses by Ben. Johnson; Names of subscribers; Tempest; Midsummer-night's dream; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure; Comedy of errors; Much ado about nothing. 2. Merchant of Venice; Love's labour's lost; As you like it; Taming of the shrew; All's well that ends well; Twelfth night; Winter's tale. 3. King Lear; King John; Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V. 4. Henry VI, part 1, 2, 3; Richard III; Henry VIII. 5. Timon of Athens; Coriolanus; Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra; Titus Andronicus; Macbeth. 6. Troilus and Cressida; Cymbeline; Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; Index of the characters, sentiments, speeches, and descriptions; Table of editions.

Vol. 1 has the imprint 1725, the others 1723, including the second title-page of vol. 1. The portraits in vol. 1 were engraved by Vertue, the first from a picture said by Boaden to be a portrait of James I, the second from the Stratford bust altered to resemble the Chandos portrait. G.4021.1 contains the book-plate of the Cowper family.

15. The works of Mr. William Shakespear. The seventh volume. Containing Venus and Adonis. Tarquin and Lucrece. Miscellany poems. Prefix'd, an essay on the art [etc.]. . . . And a glossary. The whole revis'd and corrected, with a preface, by Dr. Sewell. London; printed by J. Darby for A. Betteswerth. 1725. 4° G.4021.1.7

Contains also the Remarks by Gildon and a Table not mentioned on the title-page. This copy has the book-plate of Pet. Sainthill.

G.60a.14 is the Essay, pp. i–lii, and G.60a.15 is the Remarks, pp. 321–454, both bound separately. These two volumes belonged to W. E. Burton.

16. The works of Mr. William Shakespear. Volume the ninth. London: printed for J. Tonson: and for J. Darby. 1728. 12° 4599.35

Contents. 9. Pericles; London prodigal; Thomas, Lord Cromwell; Sir John Oldcastle; The Puritan; A Yorkshire tragedy; Locrine.

The second edition of Pope, published in 10 vols. Each play has a separate title-page with "Printed in 1728." On the last page is "The end of the ninth and last volume." Vol. 10 seems to have been printed later. The plates are from Rowe's edition, 1709.

17. The works of Shakespeare: in 7 v. Collated with the oldest copies, and corrected; with notes, explanatory and critical: by Mr. Theobald. London: A. Betteswerth. 1733. Portrait. 8° G.4022.1; G.4022.2

Contents. 1. Dedication; Preface; Lines by Milton, Davenant, and Jonson; Subscribers; Tempest; Midsummer-night's dream; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure; Much ado about nothing. 2. Merchant of Venice; Love's labour's lost; As you like it; Taming of the shrew; All's well that ends well; Twelfth night. 3. Comedy of errors; Winter's tale; King John; Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2. 4. Henry V; Henry VI, part 1, 2, 3; Richard III. 5. Henry VIII; King Lear; Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus; Macbeth. 6. Coriolanus; Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline. 7. Troilus and Cressida; Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; Table of editions collated.

A considerable advance upon Pope's edition, inasmuch as Theobald diligently collated the oldest copies and read the authors contemporaneous with Shakespeare. He roused Pope's enmity by his criticisms upon his edition to such a degree, that the poet made him the original hero of the Dunciad. The portrait in vol. 1 was designed by B. Arlaud, and engraved by G. Duchange, and is the same as that in Rowe's edition, 1709, with the words "P. 1 in the life" partially erased. Inserted in the same volume is a manuscript letter from Theobald to Sir Michael Newton in regard to his subscription, dated 23 May, 1734.

G.4022.1 is a large paper copy. G.4022.2 has bound after each play pages containing manuscript notes by Thomas Edwards, author of "Canons of criticism," etc. It also has the book-plates of Benjamin Way and Thomas Jolley, F.S.A. The set has been considerably reduced in size in binding. The plates mentioned in Bohn's Lowndes are not in either of these copies, and it is doubtful if this edition contained any beside the portrait.

18. Same. In 8 v. The second edition. London: H. Lintott. 1740. The Chandos portrait engraved by G. Vander Gucht. Illustrated. 12° G.4022.3

Contents. 1. Dedication; Preface; Tempest; Midsummer-night's dream; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure. 2. Much ado about nothing; Merchant of Venice; Love's labour's lost; As you like it; Taming of the shrew. 3. All's well that ends well; Twelfth night; Comedy of errors; Winter's tale; King John. 4. Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V; Henry VI, part 1. 5. Henry VI, part 2, 3; Richard III; Henry VIII. 6. King Lear; Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus; Macbeth; Coriolanus. 7. Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline; Troilus and Cressida. 8. Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; Table of editions collated; Index.

The index is the same as that in Pope's edition.

19. The works of Shakespear in 8 v. The genuine text (collated with all the former editions, and then corrected and emended) is here settled: being restored from the blunders of the first editors, and the interpolations of the two last: with a comment and notes, critical and explanatory. By Mr. Pope and Mr. Warburton. London: J. and P. Knapton. 1747. Portrait engraved by G. Vertue from the Chandos altered. 8 G.4023.1

Contents. 1. Dedication; Prefaces by the editor and Pope; Life by N. Rowe; Instrument; Verses by Ben Jonson; Table of editions, collated by the editors; Tempest; Midsummer-night's dream; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure. 2. Much ado about nothing; Merchant of Venice; Love's labour's lost; As you like it; Taming of the shrew. 3. All's well that ends well; Twelfth night; Comedy of errors; Winter's tale; King John. 4. Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V; Henry VI, part 1. 5. Henry VI, part 2, 3; Richard III; Henry VIII. 6. King Lear; Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus; Macbeth; Coriolanus. 7. Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline; Troilus and Cressida. 8. Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; Index of characters, etc.

Although Warburton severely criticises the edition of Theobald on his title-page, he followed the text of his second edition. His remarks upon the canons of criticism occasioned the satirical volume of T. Edwards, entitled "A supplement to Mr. Warburton's edition of Shakespear. Being the canons of criticism and glossary collected from the notes in that celebrated work, and proper to be bound up with it. By another gentleman of Lincoln's inn. London, 1748."

20. The works of Shakespear in 9 v. With a glossary. Carefully printed from the Oxford edition in quarto, 1744. London: J. and P. Knapton. 1747. The Chandos portrait, engraved by G. Vander Gucht. Illustrated. 12° G.4036.2

Contents. 1. Prefaces by the editor, Sir Thomas Hanmer, and Pope; Life by Rowe; Instrument; Verses by Jonson; Tempest; Midsummer-night's dream; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor. 2. Measure for measure; Comedy of errors; Much ado about nothing; Merchant of Venice; Love's labour's lost. 3. As you like it; Taming of the shrew; All's well that ends well; Twelfth night. 4. Winter's tale; King Lear; King John; Richard II. 5. Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V; Henry VI, part 1. 6. Henry VI, part 2, 3; Richard III; Henry VIII. 7. Timon of Athens; Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra. 8. Titus Andronicus; Macbeth; Troilus and Cressida; Cymbeline. 9. Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; Glossary.

The plates are the same, cut down, as those in Theobald's second edition, 1740.

21. The works of Shakespeare: in 8 v. Collated . . . by Mr. Theobald. London: C. Hitch. 1757. Portrait. Illustrated. 12° 4599a.3

The only apparent difference between this fourth edition and that of 1740 is the omission of the words "The second edition" from the title-page and the addition of "Shakspeare's will" to the preliminary matter in vol. 1.

22. Mr William Shakespeare his comedies, histories, and tragedies, set out by himself in quarto, or by the players his fellows in folio, and now faithfully republish'd from those editions in 10 v. octavo; with an introduction: whereunto will be added, in some other volumes, notes, critical and explanatory, and a body of various readings entire [by Edward Capell]. London: J. and R. Tonson. [1760–68.] Portrait, engraved by J. Miller. 8° G.4023.10; 2598.30

Contents. 1. Dedication; Introduction; Commendatory verses; Table of editions; Tempest; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor. 2. Measure for measure; Comedy of errors; Much ado about nothing; Love's labour's lost. 3. Midsummer-night's dream; Merchant of Venice; As you like it; Taming of the shrew. 4. All's well that ends well; Twelfth night; Winter's tale; Macbeth. 5. King John; Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2. 6. Henry V; Henry VI, part 1, 2, 3. 7. Richard III; Henry VIII; Coriolanus. 8. Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra; Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus. 9. Troilus and Cressida; Cymbeline; King Lear. 10. Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; Corrigenda.

The dedication is dated 1767. G.4023.10 is bound in eleven v., Capell's "Prolusions" being inserted after the preliminary matter in vol. 1, and the Tempest, Two gentlemen of Verona, and Merry wives are bound separately. The Notes, G.60.15, promised upon the title-page did not appear until 1775–83.

23. The plays of William Shakespeare, in 8 v., with the corrections and illustrations of various commentators; to which are added notes by Sam. Johnson. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1765. Portrait. 8° G.4024.1

Contents. 1. Preface; Dedication and preface of the players; Prefaces by Pope, Theobald, Hanmer, Warburton; Life by N. Rowe; Instrument; Will; Commendatory verses, by Ben Jonson; Tempest; Midsummer-night's dream; Two gentlemen of Verona; Measure for measure; Merchant of Venice. 2. As you like it; Love's labour's lost; Winter's tale; Twelfth night; Merry wives of Windsor. 3. Taming of the shrew; Comedy of errors; Much ado about nothing; All's well that ends well; King John. 4. Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2. Henry V; Henry VI, part 1. 5. Henry VI, part 2, 3; Richard III; Henry VIII. 6. King Lear; Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus; Macbeth; Coriolanus. 7. Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline; Troilus and Cressida. 8. Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; Appendix, vol. 1–8.

The first variorum edition, printed from Warburton's text. It has been made the basis of many subsequent editions. The portrait is the same as that in Warburton's edition, 1747, the Chandos, altered, engraved by G. Vertue.

24. Same. London: H. Woodfall. 1768. 8° 2594.1

There is no apparent difference between this and the first edition.

25. The works of Shakespear, from Mr. Pope's edition. Birmingham: R. Martin. 1768. 9 v. Portrait. 12° G.4026.2

Contents. 1. Tempest; Midsummer-night's dream; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor. 2. Measure for measure; Much ado about nothing; Merchant of Venice; Love's labour's lost. 3. As you like it; Taming of the shrew; All's well, that ends well; Twelfth night. 4. Comedy of errors; Winter's tale; King John; Richard II. 5. Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V; Henry VI, part 1. 6. Henry VI, part 2, 3; Richard III; Henry VIII. 7. King Lear; Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus; Macbeth. 8. Coriolanus; Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline. 9. Troilus and Cressida; Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello.

The first volume has a separate title-page. "The works of Shakespear in 9 v. With notes selected from the best authors, explanatory and critical . . ." "This edition was printed with Baskerville's types, at the suggestion of Mr. Garrick, and sold at Stratford during the Jubilee." Lowndes.

The first edition was published in 1744-46, apparently under the sanction of the University of Oxford, Sir Thomas Hanmer being the editor, though his name does not appear in the work. This re-issue was edited by Thomas Hawkins. There are no introductions to the plays and very meagre notes, but at the close of each volume are "Various readings of Theobald and Capel." The portraits are, in vol. 1, the Chandos, the statue in Westminster abbey, and the Stratford bust, altered as that in Pope's first edition to resemble the Chandos, each engraved by H. Gravelot. He also engraved the plates which were designed by F. Hayman. The first title-page in vol. 1 is dated 1771, the second and those of the other vols. are dated 1770.

27. The plays of Shakespeare, from the text of Dr. S. Johnson. With the prefaces, notes, &c. of Rowe, Pope, Theobald, Hanmer, Warburton, Johnson, and select notes from many other critics. Also, the introduction of the last editor Mr. Capell; and a table shewing his various readings. T. Ewing. Dublin, 1771. 6 v. in 12. Portraits. Vignettes. Sm. 8° G.4026.1

Published in parts, the first appearing in 1791. The dedication is dated 1803. According to the advertisement, the plan of the work was conceived in 1786, and a printing house was established, a foundry built to cast the types, and a manufactory for the ink. There are neither notes nor introductions to the plays, which are paged independently. The portraits are, in vol. 1, the alto-relievo by I. Banks, engraved by James Stow, and in vol. 2, the Stratford bust, engraved by J. Neagle. There are 96 plates in this set, though the advertisement seems to imply that there were to be 163. The Barton collection contains the original autographs of subscribers to this edition, G.164.2, also the original manuscript of the prospectus, G.50.29.2.

40. The dramatic works of William Shakespeare. Printed complete, with Dr. Samuel Johnson's preface and notes. To which is prefixed the life of the author. Boston: Munroe and Francis. 1802–4. 8 v. Portrait. 12° G.87.1

King John; Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V. 5. Henry VI, part 1, 2, 3; Richard III. 6. Henry VIII; Coriolanus; Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra. 7. Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus; Troilus and Cressida; Cymbeline. 8. King Lear; Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet; Othello; List of subscribers.

The first edition published in Boston, and unknown to the bibliographers. The editing was probably done by one of the printers, David Francis, "all his life a lover and careful reader of Shakespeare." It passed through three editions (Nos. 47, 49). In a copy of the third edition, formerly belonging to his son, C. S. Francis, and now in the Lenox library, is the following memorandum of D. Francis, the publisher. "In 1802 Munroe and Francis issued proposals for publishing an edition of Shakspeare in serial numbers, two to a vol. at 50 cts. per no. — 10 numbers. Two editions were printed of the above. A third edition was demanded, and we added the Poems, making 18 nos. These editions were all printed from types; of course reset every edition, as stereotype was not then known. The presswork was mostly done by Munroe and Francis personally, on a hand press with inking balls of sheep skin, the ink distributed by the hand. These vols. are a specimen of the paper and print. Paper demy-size (19 × 30) costing 5 dolls. a ream; made by hand. Ink and type imported, none worth using being made here. The engravings were executed by Dr. Alexander Anderson of New York." The title-pages of this edition, which is evidently a copy of the Edinburgh edition, published in 1792 (No. 33), have vignette portraits and each play is separately paged. Inserted in vol. 1, 2 are MS. letters of C. S. and D. G. Francis relating to these editions. This copy belonged to N. Francis. G.88.7 is an imperfect copy of Romeo and Juliet of this edition.

41. The plays of William Shakspeare. In 21 v. With the corrections and illustrations of various commentators. To which are added, notes, by Samuel Johnson and George Steevens. 5th edition. Belonged to Theo. Parker, and appears to be identical with the edition of 1821 (No. 56).

60. [Works. Edited by Sir Walter Scott and John Gibson Lockhart. Vol. 2–4. Edinburgh: printed by J. Ballantyne and co. for A. Constable. 1825.] 3 v. 8° G.166.28

Contents. 2. Two gentlemen of Verona; Comedy of errors; Love's labour's lost; Merchant of Venice. 3. Midsummer-night's dream; Taming of the shrew; As you like it; Much ado about nothing. 4. Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure; All's well that ends well; Twelfth night.

Supposed to be an unique copy of three volumes, all that were printed, of a projected edition by Scott and Lockhart. In a letter of A. Constable to Scott in 1822 the plan is suggested of an edition "in twelve or fourteen volumes with a set of readable and amusing notes." Further correspondence ensued, and it was decided that it should be in ten volumes, the first to be a general introduction, including a life of Shakespeare by Scott, the editing and notes to be by Lockhart. The last notice of the work is in a letter of Constable's, in 1825, in which he says "Shakespeare is getting on." His son adds ("A. Constable and his literary correspondents," vol. 3, p. 241), "Three volumes of the edition were completed before the sad crisis in 1826, but then laid aside; and ultimately, I have been told, the sheets were sold in London as waste paper! It is even doubted whether one copy be now in existence." The volumes were bought by T. Rodd at a sale in Edinburgh. In a memorandum to that effect made by him in vol. 2, he adds, "The book bears marks of Scott's usual inaccuracies."

There are no title-pages. Each play has a short introduction and brief notes at the foot of the page.

61. The works of Shakspeare; from the text of Johnson, Steevens, and Reed. With a biographical memoir. By W. Harvey. Sherwood, Jones and co. [London. 1825.] Portraits. Illustrations. Incomplete. 8° G.3941.3; No. 10 in G.3941.22

Ramsay; Indexes. [8.] Biography.

This edition was published in monthly parts, the first number, containing Two gentlemen of Verona, appearing in 1838. The text is founded upon and follows very closely that of the first folio, 1623. There are critical introductions and notes to each of the plays. The volumes are not numbered consecutively, but the Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies are each in two volumes and are so designated on the title-pages, which are distinct. Vol. 1 of the histories was the first published. The title-pages are undated with the exception of the Poems, 1841, and the Biography, letter-press title-page 1842, engraved title-page 1843. Inserted in vol. 1 is a letter from the editor to Thomas Rodd, dated Nov. 9, 1848. G.3937.23 is W. E. Burton's copy of the "Essay on Henry VI" and the "Postscript to the sixth volume."

71. The works of Shakspere revised from the best authorities: with a memoir, and essay on his genius, by Barry Cornwall [pseud. of B. W. Procter]: also, annotations and introductory remarks on the plays, by many distinguished writers: illustrated with engravings on wood, from designs by Kenny Meadows. London: R. Tyas. 18[39]–43. 3 v. L. 8° G.4031.4

Contents. 1. Memoir and essay; Will; Verses; Comedies. 2. Tragedies. 3. Histories: Titus Andronicus; Pericles; Poems; Glossary.

One of 12 copies printed upon India paper, on one side of the leaf only. The work was published in parts, the first number appearing in 1839. According to the prospectus, the life and essay were to be by Douglas Jerrold. The introductions to the plays were written by R. H. Horne, T. Wade, E. W. Elton, C. Whitehead, and J. Ogden, the latter of whom also edited the whole work.

72. The works of William Shakespeare. The text formed from an entirely new collation of the old editions: with the various readings, notes, a life of the poet, and a history of the early English stage. By J. Payne Collier. In 8 v. London: Whittaker and co. 1842–44. Portrait, the Droeshout. 8° G.4032.1; 2592.6

Contents. [1.] Life by Henry Tyrrell; Will; Comedies. [2.] Histories; Poems; Commendatory verses. [3.] Tragedies. [4.] The doubtful plays edited by Henry Tyrrell: Titus Andronicus; Pericles; Yorkshire tragedy; London prodigal; Sir John Oldcastle, first part; Thomas, Lord Cromwell; Puritan; Locrine; Edward III; Merry devil of Edmonton; Valiant Em; Mucedorus; Arden of Feversham; Birth of Merlin; Two noble kinsmen.

This edition, which is disavowed by Mr. Halliwell (see London Times for October, 1850, and the preface to his edition of the Comedies, London, 1854, No. 93), was published in parts, the first number appearing in November, 1850, and is a reprint in part of an American edition. It is printed in two columns. The third volume has upon the title-page, "Illustrated by portraits engraved on steel of the greatest actors of the age, in the characters of our great poet. London printing and publishing co." The life and many of the introductions are by Henry Tyrrell, and the whole of vol. 4 is edited by him.

The title-pages vary somewhat, and upon the covers it is called "Tallis's library edition." Tyrrell's name alone appears on the title-page of vol. 4.

81. Complete works of Shakespeare. Illustrated by T. H. Nicholson. Edited by Samuel Phelps. Engravings by C. W. Sheeres. [Part I, IV.] London: Willoughby and co. [1851.] Incomplete. 8° G.4010.11

Contents. Part 1. Tempest. 4. A biographical sketch of W. C. Macready by W. J. Fox, and full particulars of his last appearances at the Theatres Royal, Haymarket and Drury-Lane, with a portrait by R. Thorburn; Macbeth.

Title taken from the engraved title-page.

82. The works of Shakespeare: the text carefully restored according to the first editions; with introductions, notes original and selected, and a life of the poet; by H. N. Hudson. In 11 v. Boston: J. Munroe and co. 1851–56. Portrait, the Chandos. Wood-cuts. 12° G.4036.3

Contents. 1. Preface, etc.; Tempest; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Twelfth night. 2. Measure for measure; Much ado about nothing; Midsummer-night's dream; Love's labour's lost. 3. Merchant of Venice; As you like it; All's well that ends well; Taming of the shrew. 4. Winter's tale; Comedy of errors; Macbeth; King John. 5. Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V. 6. A reprint of the Chiswick edition, including the wood-cuts, with alterations in the text, additional notes from Halliwell and others, and a supplementary volume containing the poems and essays by the editor. The introductions to the several plays are based in part on the editor's lectures on Shakespeare. In vol. 11 is inserted a letter from him to the publishers, dated Sept. 30, 1856. G.3941.14 is another copy of vol. 11.

83. The dramatic works of William Shakespeare. With a glossary. London: W. White. 1852. viii, (4), 1124 pp. Portrait, the Droeshout. 8° G.4043.3

Known as the Lansdowne rubricated edition. The text is based upon that of Collier. It was published in London, in parts, in 1851, and is distinguished from others in that the names of the characters and stage directions are printed in red ink. It contains a dedication to the Marquis of Lansdowne, life of Shakespeare, chronological catalogue of his writings, dedication of the players, commendatory verses, and at the end a glossary, but neither introductions nor notes. There is bound in the first part the Prospectus with specimen pages.

84. The dramatic works of Shakspeare. From the text of Johnson and Steevens. With a complete glossary. Complete in one volume. Illustrated. New York: Leavitt and Allen. 1852. xii, 1062 pp. 8° 6590a.7

Macbeth; Hamlet: Introduction, containing "Hystorie of Hamblet translated from the French of F. de Belleforest;" King Lear. 15. Othello; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline, Acts 1–3. 16. Cymbeline, Acts 4, 5; Pericles of Tyre; Venus and Adonis; Lucrece; Sonnets; Lover's complaint; Passionate pilgrim; Phœnix and turtle.

The most extensive repository of literary, historical, and archæological information regarding Shakespeare and his writings to be found in any single work; and typographically, the most sumptuous edition existing. Only one hundred and fifty copies were printed. Titus Andronicus and Henry VI are printed in small type, as the editor doubts whether Shakespeare wrote them. Inserted in vol. 5 are manuscript letters from Halliwell, dated Feb. 4, 1856, and Fairholt in respect to this work, dated April 9, 1856. Lists of subscribers are contained in each volume, and in the first volume of this set is inserted a Prospectus of the whole work.

91. The Stratford Shakspere. Edited by Charles Knight. Vol. I, II. London: T. Hodgson. 1854. 2 v. in 1. Portrait, the Stratford bust. Vignettes. Fac-simile. Incomplete. Sm. 8° G.4012.1

Contents. 1. Introduction; Facts connected with the life and writings of Shakspere; Notice of original editions. 2. Tempest; Two gentlemen of Verona.

G.3920.26 is a volume with the following title:—"Specimen. The Stratford Shakspere. Edited by Charles Knight. To be published in twelve monthly volumes, foolscap octavo, at half a crown. London: 1853." On the cover is written "for J. Britton, from the Editor." G.3941.13 is another copy of vol. I of this edition, published in 1854-56 in 10 v. The "Notice of original editions," which is much longer in the "Specimen" than in the completed work, was published separately under the title "Old lamps, or new?" with twenty pages of additional matter.

92. The dramatic works of William Shakspeare; with a life of the poet, and notes, original and selected. Boston: Phillips, Sampson, and co. 1854. 8 v. Portrait, the Chandos. 8° 6591.3

Contents. 1-7. Same as in the first edition (No. 68). 8. Poetical works.

This edition seems to be printed from the plates used for the edition of 1836. A portrait has been inserted and the engravings in that edition have been omitted. Vol. 8 has a distinct title-page, but the signatures run "vol. 8."

93. The comedies of William Shakespeare: edited, with introductions and notes, critical and explanatory, by J. O. Halliwell. Reprinted from the American edition. London: printed for private circulation only. 1854. (2), 624 pp. L. 8° G.4041.4

One of twenty copies. The comedies and a portion of the histories were printed in New York in 1850, 51, when the publication was discontinued on account of its being republished in London by Tallis and co. See No. 80.

94. Shakspere's Werke. Herausgegeben und erklärt von Nicolaus Delius. Elberfeld, 1854–65. R. L. Friderichs. 8 v. 8° G.4042.1

Pericles; King Lear; Romeo and Juliet; Hamlet. 8. Othello; Poems; Glossary.

There are neither introductions nor notes.

96. The dramatic works of William Shakespeare. The text carefully revised with notes, by Samuel Weller Singer. The life of the poet and critical essays on the plays by William Watkiss Lloyd. [With vignettes engraved on wood by J. Thompson from drawings by Stothard.] London: Bell and Daldy. 1856. 10 v. Portrait, the Stratford bust. Fac-similes. 12° G.4045.3

Contents. 1. Preface; Life; Will; Dedication and preface; Commendatory verses; Tempest; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure. 2. Comedy of errors; Much ado about nothing; Love's labour's lost; Midsummer-night's dream; Merchant of Venice. 3. As you like it; Taming of the shrew; All's well that ends well; Twelfth night. 4. Winter's tale; Pericles; King John; Richard II. 5. Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V. 6. Henry VI, part 1, 2, 3; Richard III. 7. Henry VIII; Troilus and Cressida; Coriolanus. 8. Titus Andronicus; Romeo and Juliet; Timon of Athens; Julius Cæsar. 9. Macbeth; Hamlet; King Lear. 10. Othello; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline.

In the first volume are inserted the Prospectus dated March, 1853, an autograph letter of Singer to Russell Smith, dated Nov. 19, 1855, referring to this work, and one of Lloyd to Singer, dated Sept. 30, 1852. The set has the book-plate (coat of arms) of Joseph Walter King Eyton.

97. The complete works of Shakespeare, from the original text: carefully collated and compared with the editions of Halliwell, Knight, and Collier: with historical and critical introductions, and notes to each play: and a life of the great dramatist, by Charles Knight. Illustrated with new and finely executed steel engravings, chiefly portraits in character of celebrated American actors, drawn from life, expressly for this edition. New York: Martin, Johnson, and co. [1856.] 3 v. liv, 1725 pp. Portrait, the Chandos. 4 4591.4

Contents. [1.] Life; Will; Comedies. [2.] General introduction to the historical plays by J. O. Halliwell; Histories. [3.] Tragedies; Poems; Commendatory verses.

The portraits are dated 1855-59. The engraved title-pages of vol. 2, 3 are dated 1856.

98. The complete works of William Shakspeare, dramatic and poetic: the text from the corrected copy of the late G. Steevens. With glossarial notes, and a memoir, by A. Chalmers. 40 illustrations. Complete in one volume. New York: Miller, Orton and Mulligan. 1856. x, 7–988 pp. Portrait, the Chandos. 8 6590a.3

99. The works of William Shakespeare. The text revised by A. Dyce. London: E. Moxon. 1857. 6 v. Portrait, the Stratford bust. 8° G.4043.1

Contents. 1. Preface; Will; Early editions; Dedication, etc.; Commendatory verses; Account of the plays; Addenda and corrigenda; Tempest; Two gentlemen of Verona; Merry wives of Windsor; Measure for measure; Comedy of errors. 2. Titus Andronicus; Romeo and Juliet; Timon of Athens; Julius Cæsar; Macbeth; Hamlet; King Lear. 6. Othello; Antony and Cleopatra; Cymbeline; Pericles; Poems.

Inserted in vol. 1 is a manuscript letter from A. Dyce to R. G. White, dated Nov. 30, 1854, of which the following is an extract: "I have not only changed my mind (such is the uncertainty of criticism) about the readings in various passages of the plays which occupy the two first volumes, but I have also deviated from the plan of annotation with which I commenced the work: and the consequence of all this is, that several SHEETS throughout the first and second volumes must be cancelled,—an operation which cannot take place till the whole is completed. To allow any portion of the edition to get abroad at present is therefore out of the question."

100. The plays and poems of Shakespeare, according to the improved text of E. Malone, including the latest revisions, with a life, glossarial notes, an index, and 170 illustrations, from designs by English artists. Edited by A. J. Valpy. In 15 v. London: H. G. Bohn. 1857. Portrait. Sm. 8° 4599a.2

The contents are the same as in the first edition, 1832 (No. 67).

101. The works of Shakespeare. The text regulated by the recently discovered folio of 1632, containing early manuscript emendations. With a history of the stage, a life of the poet, and an introduction to each play by J. P. Collier. To which are added, glossarial and other notes and the readings of former editions. Redfield: New York. 1857.

(1), 4, (1), cvii, 966 pp. Portrait, the Droeshout. Illustrated. 8° G.82.2

The engraved title-page is dated 1853.

102. The works of William Shakespeare. The plays edited from the folio of 1623, with various readings from all the editions and all the commentators, notes, introductory remarks, a historical sketch of the text, an account of the rise and progress of the English drama, a memoir of the poet, and an essay on his genius by Richard Grant White. Boston: Little, Brown and co. 1857–66. 12 v. Portraits. Illustrations. Fac-similes. 8° G.4044.1; 4597.3

Contents. 1. Dedication to T. P. Barton; Preface; Supplementary notes; Memoirs; Will; Chronological table; The portraits and autographs; The English drama; Shakespeare's genius; Historical sketch of the text; Poems. 2. SELECTIONS.

137. Twenty of the plays of Shakespeare, being the whole number printed in quarto during his lifetime, or before the restoration, collated where there were different copies, and publish'd from the originals, by George Steevens. In 4 v. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1766. 8° G.4025.3

Contents. 1. Advertisement; A midsommer nights dreame. Iames Roberts, 1600; Merry wiues of Windsor, 1619; Merry wives of Windsor. Newly corrected, 1630; Much adoe about nothing, 1600; Merchant of Venice, 1600; Loues labour's lost, 1631. 2. The taming of the shrew, 1631; King Lear, 1608; The first and second part of King John, 1611; Richard II, 1615; Henry IV, 1613; The second part of Henry IV, 1600. 3. Henry V, 1608; The whole contention betweene the two famous houses, Lancaster and Yorke; Richard III, 1612; Titus Andronicus, 1611; Troylus and Cresseida, 1609. 4. Romeo and Iuliet, 1597; Romeo and Juliet. Newly corrected, augmented and amended, 1609; Hamlet, 1611; Othello, 1622; Shake-speare's sonnets, A louers complaint, 1609; King Leir, 1605.

Inserted in vol. 1 is a manuscript letter of Steevens, dated Aug. 2, 1780. G.4061.8 is another copy of the leaves containing the "Sonnets" and "Lover's complaint."

138. The plays of Lear and Cymbeline, by William Shakspeare. In 2 v. With the notes and illustrations of various commentators. To which are added, remarks by the editor [Ambrose Eccles]. London: C. Dilly. 1793. 8° G.4011.8

Contents. [1.] King Lear. [2.] Cymbeline.

On a blank leaf in vol. 1 is written "Isaac Reed, 1793. The publisher of these two plays was Mr. Eccles, an Irish gentleman." The editor has changed the arrangement of some of the scenes in both plays.

139. Same. London: G. G. and J. Robinson. 1794. 8° G.4011.9

The only apparent difference between the two editions is that of date and publisher.

ter's tale, Henry IV, part 1, 2, Much ado about nothing, Measure for measure, Othello, King Lear, Hamlet, Merry wives of Windsor, Romeo and Juliet, Henry VIII, Richard III, Twelfth night, Macbeth. The full titles will be found under each play, as they were published independently and new general title-pages only were printed for the collection.

141. A select British theatre; containing all the plays formerly adapted to the stage by Mr. Kemble: revised by him, with additional alterations. London: J. Miller. 1815. 8 v. 12° G.3964.2

These plays were published separately in 1814, 15, and afterwards gathered together under the above general title. Vol. 1-5 contain all of the plays of Shakespeare except Antony and Cleopatra, Henry VI, Love's labour's lost, Midsummer-night's dream, Pericles, Richard II, Timon of Athens, Titus Andronicus, and Troilus and Cressida. The full titles are to be found under each separate play. G.4011.2 is another set of the same plays, without the general title, bound in 5 vols. and lettered on the back "Shakspeare revised by Kemble."

142. The British theatre; or, a collection of plays, which are acted at the Theatres Royal, Drury Lane, Covent Garden, Haymarket, and Lyceum. Printed, under the authority of the managers, from the prompt books. With biographical and critical remarks, by Mrs. Inchbald. A new edition. In 20 v. London: Hurst, Robinson, and co. [1816–18.] Illustrated. 12° G.66.3

Contents the same as in No. 140, with the exception that "As you like it" is omitted. The plates are dated 1816–18.

143. Hamlet, and As you like it. A specimen of a new edition of Shakespeare. London: J. Murray. 1819. xiii, (2), 174, 135, 116, 41 pp. 8° G.4010.1; G.4010.2

The first edition of Hamlet in which the folio of 1623 was made the basis of the text, and, in Knight's judgment, a great improvement on all that preceded it. According to a writer in Notes and Queries, 2d series, v. 6, p. 43, the editor, Thomas Caldecott, was assisted by William Crowe, the author of "Lewesdon Hill." His assertion that it was published in 1812 is probably an error for 1819. The first copy has manuscript notes by the Rev. Joseph Hunter, the author of "Illustrations of the life, studies, and writings of Shakespeare." The second has upon the fly-leaf "Robert Southey Esq., from the editor," and was bound by Southey himself in boards covered with chintz. One hundred copies only were printed.

144. Same. By Thomas Caldecott. London: J. Murray. 1820. 8° G.4010.3

The only apparent difference between this and the first edition is the addition of the editor's name and the change of date. Dr. Busby's Sonnet is inserted in manuscript. There are also a few manuscript notes and corrections.

145. The School-Shakspeare: or, plays and scenes from Shakspeare, illustrated for the use of schools, with glossarial notes, selected from the best annotators, by J. R. Pitman. London: C. Rice. 1822. xxiv, 596 pp. 8° G.4010.12

146. Hamlet, and As you like it. A specimen of an edition of Shakespeare. By Thomas Caldecott. London: printed by W. Nicol. 1832. (1), xvi, 178, 150, 115, 43, 4 pp. Fac-similes. 8° G.4010.4; G.4010.5; G.4010.6

The preface and notes have been somewhat changed. A sonnet by W. B. Busby and two leaves of "Addenda et corrigenda" have been added. G.4010.4 was presented by H. Foss to T. Jolley and contains the latter's book-plate. It also has inserted a manuscript letter to the editor from Richard Stephens, dated February 24, 1833, acknowledging the receipt of a copy of the work; also one of the editor, dated Jan. 30, 1799. Upon the fly-leaf of G.4010.5 is "Samuel Rogers, Esq., at the instance of G. W. Crowe, Esq., with the editor's best respects." G.4010.6 has numerous manuscript notes apparently in the hand of J. Britton,

[illegible]

First series, illustrative of English and Roman history. London: J. Richardson. 1839. xxiii, 453 pp. Plate. 12° G.4010.16

149. Shakspearian readings embodying the most interesting parts of English and Roman history, and intended also as exercises in elocution. By B. H. Smart. London: J. G. F. and J. Rivington. 1841. xxiii, 453 pp. Plate 12° G.4010.17

150. Same. London: J. G., F and J. Rivington. 1842. xxiii, 453 pp. Plate. 12° G.4010.18

The only difference between the three editions is a change of title-page.

151. The Shakspearian reader: a collection of the most approved plays of Shakspeare; carefully revised, with introductory and explanatory notes, and a memoir of the author. Prepared expressly for the use of classes, and the family reading circle. By John W. S. Hows. New York: D. Appleton and co. 1855. xvi, 447 pp. 12° G.4010.19

Inserted is an autograph letter of the editor, dated Nov. 3, 1857.

152. Selections from the plays of Shakespeare. As arranged for representation at the Princess's theatre, and especially adapted for schools, private families, and young people. By Charles Kean. In 2 v. London: Bradbury and Evans. 1860 Sm. 8° G.4011.6

153. Shakespeare: adapted for reading classes, and for the family circle. By Thomas Bulfinch and S. G. Bulfinch. Boston: J. E. Tilton and co. 1865. xii, 436 pp. Illustrated. 8° 1396.2

Contents. Midsummer-night's dream; Romeo and Juliet; Merchant of Venice; Henry IV, part 1; Hamlet; King Lear; Macbeth; Tempest.

154. Clarendon press series. Shakespeare. Select plays. Edited by W. G Clark and W. A. Wright. Oxford: Clarendon press. 1868–77. Sm. 8° 4599.18

Of this expurgated edition seven plays, Merchant of Venice, Richard II, Macbeth, Hamlet, Tempest, King Lear, and As you like it, have appeared. The full titles will be given under each play. The last three were edited by Wright alone.

155. Charles Kemble's Shakspere readings: being a selection of the plays of Shakspere as read by him in public. Edited by R. J. Lane. London: Bell and Daldy. 1870 [1869]. Sm. 8 6599.11

Contents. 1. Cymbeline; Hamlet; As you like it; Merchant of Venice; Much ado about nothing; Julius Cæsar. 2. King John; Romeo and Juliet; Othello; Henry IV, part 1, 2. 3. Henry V; Macbeth; Coriolanus; Richard III; Henry VIII.

156. Nelson's school series. The Shakespeare reader: with notes, historical and grammatical. By Walter Scott Dalgleish London: T. Nelson and sons. 1871. x, 418 pp. Sm. 8 6597.21

Contents. Richard II; Henry IV, part 1; Richard III; Merchant of Venice; King John; Coriolanus; Tempest; Henry VIII; Julius Cæsar; Hamlet; Macbeth; King Lear.

An abridged and expurgated edition.

157. Shakespeare's plays. Abridged and revised for the use of girls. By Rosa Baughan. Second edition. London: R. Washbourne. 1871. (2), 167 pp. 8° 6595.2

Contents. Merchant of Venice; Midsummer-night's dream; [illegible]tlemen of Verona; Taming of the shrew; Love's [illegible]; Twelfth night; Comedy of errors; As you like it; [illegible]out nothing; Tempest; Extracts from Othello, [illegible]opatra, Cymbeline, Winter's tale, Measure for [illegible]ll that ends well, Merry wives of Windsor; [illegible]s Sonnets and Passionate pilgrim.

[illegible] Shakespeare selected and prepared [illegible]clubs, classes, and families. With introductions and notes. By Henry N. Hudson. Vol. 1-3. Boston: Ginn brothers. 1871-1875. 12° 1392.1; 6597.13

Contents. 1. Preface; Introduction; As you like it; Merchant of Venice; Twelfth night; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Julius Cæsar; Hamlet. 2. Tempest; Winter's tale; Henry V; Richard III; King Lear; Macbeth; Antony and Cleopatra. 3. Midsummer-night's dream; Much ado about nothing; Henry VIII; Romeo and Juliet; Cymbeline; Coriolanus; Othello.

The plays in this selection have been published separately.

159. Select plays of Shakspere. The Rugby edition. [Edited by Charles E. Moberly and R. Whitelaw.] Rivingtons, London. 1872, 76. Sm. 8° 6596.4

This selection apparently includes only the Tempest, Much ado about nothing, Macbeth, King Lear, Hamlet, As you like it, and Coriolanus. Full titles of all which have been published will be found under the separate plays.

SEPARATE PLAYS.

All's well that ends well.

160. Shakspeare's All's well that ends well; with alterations by J. P. Kemble. As it is performed by his majesty's servants, of the Theatre-Royal, Drury-Lane. London: J. Debrett. 1793. (2), 61 pp. 8° No. 1 in G.4012.5

Alterations.

194. The twins; or, which is which? A farce. In three acts. Altered from Shakespeare's Comedy of errors, by W. Woods. As it is performed at the Theatre-Royal, Edinburgh. Edinburgh: T. Cadell. 1780. 67 pp. 8° G.4014.6

This copy belonged to W. E. Burton.

The twins; or, which is which? By Mr. Woods. In Collection of farces. Edinburgh. 1792. 2575.35.4

195. The comedy of errors. With alterations from Shakspeare. Adapted for theatrical representation. By Thomas Hull. As performed at the Theatre-Royal, Covent-Garden. A new edition. London: J. Bell. 1793. 51 pp. 8° G.4012.7

In a copy of the "Biographia dramatica" formerly belonging to W. T. Lowndes and now in the Barton library, G.43.7, is a note by him, "There was a former alteration pub. 1770." In his Manual, however, it is given 1779. The original title of the alteration was "The twins; or the comedy of errors."

196. Shakspeare's Comedy of errors, adapted to the stage by Thomas Hull; revised by J. P. Kemble; and now published as it is performed at the Theatres Royal. London: J. Miller. 1815. 57 pp. 12° G.3964.2.3

Coriolanus.

197. Coriolanus; or, the Roman matron. A tragedy. Altered from Shakespeare. Printed exactly conformable to the representation at the Theatre Royal, Drury-Lane. With the order of the ovation. By permission of the managers, under the insepection [sic] of James Wrighten, prompter. London: J. Christie. 1789. 80 pp. 8° G.4012.10

This version, which is a stage adaptation, rather than an alteration, agrees in the main with that of Kemble, published afterward, and was probably altered by him from that of Sheridan, which, in its turn, was taken in part from Thomson. Some have attributed it to Wrighten, the prompter.

198. Coriolanus; or, the Roman matron; a historical play, in five acts; by William Shakspeare. As performed at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden. Printed under the authority of the managers from the prompt book. With remarks by Mrs. Inchbald. London: Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown. [1811?] 68 pp. Plate. 12° No. 1 in G.4011.1.5

On the half title is "Select plays of Shakspere. The Rugby edition."

206. Plays of Shakespeare selected and prepared for use in schools. With introductions and notes. By Henry N. Hudson. Number 15. Coriolanus. Boston: Ginn and Heath. 1878. (2), 440–550 pp. 12° No. 2 in G.84.4.1

Alterations.

207. The ingratitude of a common-wealth: or, the fall of Caius Martius Coriolanus. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal. By N. Tate. London, J. Hindmarsh. 1682. (7), 64 pp. 4° G.4014.7

In the Dedication to Charles, Marquess of Worcester, the play is said to have been adapted to picture the political factions of the day. The fifth act is wholly by Tate.

208. The invader of his country: or, the fatal resentment. A tragedy. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. By his majesty's servants. By Mr. Dennis. London: J. Pemberton and J. Watts. 1720. (15), 79 pp. 8° G.4014.8

Less than half of the play is Shakespeare's.

209. Coriolanus. A tragedy. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Covent-Garden. By the late James Thomson. London, A. Millar. 1749. (4), 62, (2) pp. 8° G.4014.9

On the fly-leaf is "Fred: Mulcaster 1752, from the author's sister." It has also the coat of arms of the Hamilton family.

210. Coriolanus; or, the Roman matron. A tragedy. Taken from Shakespear and Thomson. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Covent-Garden: to which is added, the order of the ovation [by Thomas Sheridan]. London: A. Millar. 1755. (6), 78, (1) pp. 8° G.4012.9

Cymbeline.

211. Cymbeline. A tragedy. By Shakespear. With alterations [by D. Garrick]. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1762. 77 pp. 12° G.4012.14

A stage adaptation, with some alterations and omissions.

212. Cymbeline. A tragedy. As it is acted at the Theatres-Royal in Drury-Lane and Covent-Garden. By Shakespeare. London: J. Wenman. 1777. Portrait, Reddish in the character of Posthumus. 21 pp. 8° No. 3 in G.4011.7

213. Roach's edition. Cymbeline. A tragedy. By William Shakspeare. Adapted for theatrical representation [by J. P. Kemble]; as performed at the Theatres-Royal, Drury-Lane, and Covent-Garden. A reprint, with slight changes, of the edition of 1676.

229. The tragedy of Hamlet Prince of Denmark. As it is now acted by her majesties servants. By William Shakespeare. London. R. Wellington. 1703. (3), 82 pp. 4° No. 2 in G.4010.8

Appears to be a reprint of the edition of 1676.

230. The tragedy of Hamlet Prince of Denmark: as it is now acted by her majesties servants. By William Shakespeare. London: R. Wellington. 1703. (3), 82 pp. 4° No. 2 in G.4010.7; G.4012.18

Probably a reprint of the previous edition with the correction of numerous typographical errors.

231. Hamlet, Prince of Denmark; a tragedy. As it is now acted by his majesty's servants. Written by William Shakespear. London: printed, and sold by the booksellers of London and Westminster. 1736. 110 pp. Imperfect. 8° No. 1 in G.4012.20

A reprint, with some changes, of the edition of 1734. The last leaf is wanting in this copy.

232. Hamlet, Prince of Denmark. A tragedy. By William Shakespeare. Collated with the old and modern editions [by Charles Jennens]. London: W. Owen. 1773. (17), 207 pp. Plate. 8° G.4012.21; 2596.16.1

The plate is wanting in 2596.16, which contains the book-plate of Thos. Jolley.

233. Shakspeare's Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, a tragedy, revised by J. P. Kemble; and now first published as it is acted at the Theatre Royal in Covent Garden. London: J. Ridgway. 1804. 83 pp. 8° No. 6 in G.4011.3

This copy belonged to J. Boaden and is bound with "Merry wives of Windsor, Measure for measure, Henry IV, part 1, 2, and Macbeth." The volume is lettered on the back "Kemble's Covent Garden Shakspeare, vol. 1." Boaden has written on the fly-leaf: "The character of these copies is fidelity. Accurate collation of the originals has determin'd all that is given of the poet: for curtailment, as it is necessary in our stage copies, so it appears here to be very skilfully, and almost awfully, performed."

234. Hamlet, Prince of Denmark. A tragedy. By William Shakspeare. Printed from the text of Mr. Malone's edition. Boston: printed by Hosea Sprague. 1805. 111 pp. Sm. 8° 6579a.65

There is still an earlier edition of Hamlet published in Boston, of which there is no record in the bibliographies, with the following title: "Hamlet, Prince of Denmark: a tragedy. In five acts. By William Shakespear. As performed at the Theatre in Boston. Boston: printed for David West, No. 36, Marlborough Street, and John West, No. 75, Cornhill." This is one of a series of plays published without doubt in 1794. It is bound in a volume lettered on the back "Boston Theatre, 1," with "Twelfth night," "Natural son," "West Indian," "Foundling." They are the earliest recorded editions of any of Shakespeare's plays published in America.

235. Hamlet; a tragedy, in five acts. By William Shakspeare. As performed at the Theatres-Royal, Drury-Lane and Covent-Garden. Printed, under the authority of the managers, from the prompt-books. Edinburgh: Oliver and Boyd. [1808?] 64 pp. 12° No. 2 in G.4012.22

Kemble's revision. The "Dramatis personæ" are the same as in Mrs. Inchbald's edition of 1808.

236. Hamlet, Prince of Denmark; a tragedy, in five acts; by William Shakspeare. As performed at the Theatres Royal, Drury Lane and Covent Garden. Printed under the authority of the managers from the prompt book. With remarks by Mrs. Inchbald. London: printed [by J. Ballantyne and co.] for Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown. [1811?] 93 pp. Plate. 12 No. 3 in G.4011.1.1

Hamlet. In Deverell, R. Discoveries in hieroglyphics. London, 1813. 8° G.3930.6.2

With curious notes and illustrations intended to explain Hamlet by a reference to the moon.

237. Shakspeare's Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, a tragedy; revised by J. P. Kemble; and now published as it is performed at the Theatres Royal. London: J. Miller. 1814. 85 pp. 8° G.3964.2.5; G.4011.2.1

238. Hamlet, Prince of Denmark; a tragedy, in five acts; by William Shakspeare. As performed at the Theatres Royal Drury Lane and Covent Garden. Printed under the authority of the managers from the prompt book. With remarks by Mrs. Inchbald. London: printed [by T. Davison] for Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown. [1816?] 93 pp. Plate. 12° G.66.3.16

The plate differs from that in the edition of 1811 (No. 236).

239. Shakspeare's Hamlet; a tragedy; revised by J. P. Kemble. As it is acted at the Theatre Royal Drury-Lane. London: T. Rodwell. 1818. (2), 87 pp. 12° No. 2 in G.4012.20

Another title-page reads, "The first part of Shakespeare's Henry the fourth, facsimiled from the edition printed at London in the year 1599, by Edmund William Ashbee. London: for private circulation only. 1861." According to notes on the fly-leaf this is No. 6 out of 31 selected copies of the reprint. 50 sets of each of the 48 reprints were printed and of these 19 were destroyed by the publishers. A number of the remaining sets were also burned at the destruction of the Pantechnicon in London, Feb. 13, 1874, so that now there are very few complete sets in existence. The Barton library has but eight of the reprints, as Mr. Barton died before the completion of the work. The leaves are printed upon one side only.

The history of Henry the fourth. With the Battell at Shrewseburie, betweene the King, and Lord Henrie Percy, surnamed Henrie Hotspur of the North. With the humorous conceites of Sir Iohn Falstaffe. 274. K. Henry IV. With the humours of Sir John Falstaff. A tragi-comedy. As it is acted at the Theatre in Little-Lincolns-Inn-Fields by his majesty's servants. Revived, with alterations [by T. Betterton]. Written originally by Mr. Shakespear. London, printed for R. W. and sold by J. Deeve. 1700. (2), 54 pp. 4° G.4012.26

The alterations are chiefly abridgments.

275. K. Henry IV. With the humours of Sir John Falstaff. A tragi-comedy, by Mr. W. Shakespear. London. T. Johnson. 1721. 92 pp. Sm. 8° No. 1 in G.4012.27

This stage adaptation is apparently attributed by Lowndes to Hon. Mr. Grenville, editor of an edition published in 1710. This is probably George Granville (sometimes written Grenville), Lord Lansdowne.

276. The first part of Henry IV. With the life and death of Henry, sirnamed Hot-spur. By Shakespear. With alterations, as perform'd at the theatres. London. C. Hitch. 1763. 70 pp. 12° No. 3 in G.4015.30

287. King Henry IV. The second part: a historical play, in five acts; by William Shakspeare. As performed at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden. Printed under the authority of the managers from the prompt-book. With remarks by Mrs. Inchbald. London: Hurst, Robinson, and co. [1816?] 74 pp. Plate. 12° G.66.3.20

288. King Henry IV. Part II An historical play, in five acts. By William Shakespeare. With an illustration and remarks. T. H. Lacy, London. [1864?] 71 pp. 12° No. 8 in G.84.2.1

No. 947 of Lacy's acting edition.

289. The second part of Henry the fourth, containing his death; and the coronation of king Henry the fift. By William Shakspere. Arranged for representation by Charles Calvert, and produced under his direction at the Prince's theatre, Manchester, September, 1874. Manchester: J. F. Wilkinson, printer. 1874. 64 pp. 8° 6596.11

Alterations.

290. The sequel of Henry the fourth: with the humours of Sir John Falstaffe, and Justice Shallow. As it is acted by his majesty's company of comedians, at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. Alter'd from Shakespear, by the late Mr. Betterton. London: W. Chetwood. [1721?] (7), 82 pp. 8° G.4014.23

According to Genest, this alteration was not printed until after Dec. 17, 1720. The "Biographia dramatica" gives the date 1719.

291. The life and humours of Falstaff; a comedy formed out of the two parts of Shakspeare's Henry the fourth, and a few scenes of Henry the fifth. Compiled, etc. By C. S. London: Calkin and Budd. 1829. (3), ii, (1), 93 pp. 12° G.4014.20

This compilation is ascribed in the catalogue of W. E. Burton's library to C. Short. Only a few copies were printed for presents.

292. Shakespeare's play of King Henry the fourth, printed from a contemporary manuscript. Edited by James Orchard Halliwell. London: printed for the Shakespeare society. 1845. xx, 121, (1) pp. Fac-similes. 8° G.3927.20; 4596.12.12; 342.27

The original manuscript was corrected and adapted for the stage apparently by Sir Edward Deryng, who died in 1644. It does not contain the whole of Henry IV., but the two parts condensed into one, very likely for private representation, as with the manuscript there are two lists of dramatis personæ in the "Spanish curate," with characters by gentlemen well known in Kent, showing that private theatricals flourished at Surrenden, the family seat of the Deryngs.

Henry V.

301. The True Tragedie of Richarde Duke of Yorke, and the death of good King Henrie the sixt: With the whole contention betweene the two Houses, Lancaster and Yorke; as it was sundry times acted by the Right Honourable the Earl of Pembrooke his seruantes. Printed at London [sic] by W. W. for Thomas Millington, and are to be sold at his shoppe vnder Saint Peters Church in Cornewall. 1600. (32) ff. 4° G.176.8

Bought at Halliwell's sale, May 21, 1857, for £63. On the fly-leaf is a note by Mr. Halliwell, of which the following is an extract: "The present [edition] is the second, and is of the greatest rarity in an absolutely perfect state." "Good sound copy. Last leaf mounted." Barton.

Alterations.

302. King Henry vi. A tragedy. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane, By his majesty's servants. Altered from Shakespear, in the year 1720, by Theophilus Cibber. The second edition. London: W. Chetwood. 1724. (3), 60 pp. 8°
No. 2 in G.4010.10

Taken from part 3 of Henry vi, with the last act of part 2, with many alterations and abbreviations.

303. The roses; or King Henry the sixth; an historical tragedy. Represented at Reading school, October 15th, 16th and 17th, 1795. Compiled principally from Shakespeare [by Richard Valpy]. Published, as it was performed, for the benefit of the Cheap repository for moral and instructive tracts. Reading: Smart and Cowslade. [1795.] (7), 46, (2) pp. 8° G.4014.26

Taken chiefly from the last four acts of Henry vi, part 3, with passages from parts 1 and 2, and Richard ii.

304. Richard, duke of York; or, the contention of York and Lancaster. (As altered from Shakspeare's three parts of Henry vi.) In five acts. As it is performed at the Theatre Royal, Drury-Lane. London: R. White. 1817. (2), xx, 5–81 pp. 8°
G.4014.28

Ascribed in Bohn's Lowndes to Edmund Kean, but from the preface and Genest's account, Vol. 8, p. 630–641, this would seem hardly probable. In Burton's catalogue the alteration is attributed to Soane, and this copy, bought at the sale of his library, is so lettered on the back. In Hawkins' Life of Kean, Vol. 2, p. 30, it is said to be by J. H. Merivale.

461. Plays of Shakespeare selected and prepared for use in schools. With introductions and notes. By Henry N. Hudson. Number 1. The merchant of Venice. Boston: Ginn and Heath. 1878. (2), 97-172 pp. 12 No. 2 in G.84.4.2

Alterations.

462. The Jew of Venice. A comedy. As it is acted at the Theatre in Little-Lincolns-Inn-Fields, by his majesty's servants [by George Granville, baron Lansdowne]. London, B. Lintott, 1701. (6), 46, (1) pp. 4 G.4014.38

Nearly the whole of the second act and parts of the others have been omitted. The character of Shylock is essentially unchanged. The numerous assertions that he is made comic seem to have arisen from a misunderstanding of a remark of Rowe, by the editor of the "Biographia dramatica." Inserted between acts 2 and 3 is "Peleus and Thetis, a masque." The profits of the play were given to Dryden's family.

463. Same. London: B. Lintot. 1732. 165-226 pp. 12° G.4014.39

Printed in a volume having two general title-pages, with The she gallants, and Heroick love, plays by Lord Lansdowne.

464. The merchant of Venice. A play in three acts. Altered from Shakspeare [by James Plumptre]. Manuscript. 79 ff. 4° G.4013.13

On the fly-leaf is written "James Plumptre, Clare Hall. Cam. March. 1791." The alterations consist chiefly of omissions.

465. The merchant of Venice, a comedy, altered from Shakespeare [by Richard Valpy], as it was acted at Reading school, in October, 1802, for the benefit of the Literary fund. Reading: Smart and Cowslade. 1802. (8), 82, (3) pp. 8° G.4013.14

Several scenes are omitted and there are some changes in act 5 resembling those made in Plumptre's alteration.

Parodies.

466. The merchant of Venice travestie. A burlesque. In one act. By the author of "Macbeth travestie," etc. Oxford: E. T. Spiers. 1849. 33 pp. 12° No. 2 in G.88.5

467. The minor drama. No. CXXXII. Shylock, or the merchant of Venice preserved. An entirely new reading of Shakespeare, from an edition hitherto undiscovered by modern authorities, and which it is hoped may be received as the stray leaves of a Jerusalem hearty-joke. By Francis Talfourd. As performed in the London and American theatres. To which are added a description of the costume, cast of the characters, entrances and exits, relative positions, and the whole of the stage business. New York: S. French. [1857?] 30 pp. 12° No. 6 in G.4015.30

468. The peddler of very nice; a burlesque. By the author of "Sylvia's soldier," etc. [George M. Baker.] Boston: G. M. Baker and co. [1866.] 2, 201–214 pp. 12° No. 9 in G.84.2.1

In "The amateur drama" series.

The peddler of very nice. A burlesque of the trial-scene. In Baker, G. M. Amateur dramas. Boston, 1871. 12° 1346.11

500. The fairies. An opera. Taken from A midsummer night's dream, written by Shakespear. As it is perform'd at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. The songs from Shakespear, Milton, Waller, Dryden, Hammond, etc. The music composed by Mr. Smith. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1755. 47 pp. 8° G.4014.47

The prologue by Garrick is omitted. The text only.

501. A midsummer night's dream. Written by Shakespeare: with alterations and additions, and several new songs. As it is performed at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1763. 47 pp. 8° G.4013.20

Ascribed in the first edition of the Biographia dramatica to Geo. Colman, the elder, but in the second to Mr. Garrick. That part of the Interlude in the fifth act is omitted.

502. A fairy tale. In two acts. Taken from Shakespeare. As it is performed at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1763. 24 pp. 8° No. 1 in G.4014.48; G.4014.49

This play consists simply of the Interlude as given in the previous alteration (No. 501), with slight changes. It has been generally attributed to Geo. Colman the elder, and his name is upon the back of G.4014.48, which belonged to W. E. Burton. He disclaims, however, more than the reduction of Garrick's alteration, which had signally failed.

503. A fairy tale. In two acts. Taken from Shakespeare. As it is performed at the Theatre-Royal in the Hay-market. London: G. Kearsly. 1777. 24 pp. 8° No. 2 in G.4014.48

The same as the edition of 1763 with a few slight omissions.

504. A midsummer night's dream. written by Shakspeare: with alterations, additions, and new songs [by Frederick Reynolds]; as it is performed at the Theatre-Royal, Covent-Garden. London: J. Miller. 1816. iv, 3–57 pp. 8° No. 3 in G.4014.46; G.4013.21

One whole scene and part of another have been added.

Much ado about nothing.

505. Much adoe about Nothing. As it hath been sundrie times publikely acted by the right honourable, the Lord Chamberlaine his seruants. Written by William Shakespeare. London Printed by P. S. for Andrew Wise, and William Aspley. 1600. (36) ff. 4° G.176.24

This copy belonged to George Steevens and has his autograph on the title-page. It is inlaid and contains numerous manuscript notes by B. H. Bright. There is a reprint to be found in Steevens's "Twenty plays," London, 1766, G.4025.3.1.

506. Same. [Photo-lithographed, by express permission, and under the superintendence of Mr. H. Staunton, from the matchless original of 1600, in the library of the Earl of Ellesmere. R. Preston, photo. London: Day and son. 1864.] (36) ff. 4° G.166.15

The words within the brackets are copied from the Birmingham catalogue. This copy of the reprint does not contain them.

507. Shakespeare's Much ado about nothing, a comedy. Revised by J. P. Kemble; and now first published as it is acted at the Theatre Royal in Covent Garden. London: printed for the Theatre. 1810. 68 pp. 8° No. 3 in G.4010.10

This copy belonged to Barrymore the actor.

508. Shakspeare's Much ado about nothing, a comedy; revised by J. P. Kemble; and now published as it is performed at the Theatres Royal. London: J. Miller. 1815. 70 pp. 12° G.3964.2.2; G.4011.2.2

509. Much ado about nothing; a comedy, in five acts; by William Shakspeare. As performed at the Theatres Royal, Drury Lane and Covent Garden. Printed under the authority of the managers from the prompt book. With remarks by Mrs. Inchbald. London. Hurst, Robinson, and co. [1816?] 74 pp. Plate. 12° G.66.3.13

510. Much adoe about nothing. By Mr. William Shakespeare: the text from the Folio of 1623; with notices of the known editions preuiously issued. London. L. Booth. 1862. (6), 21 pp. 4° G.166.16

511. French's standard drama. No. LV. Much ado about nothing. A comedy in six acts. By William Shakspeare. With the stage business, cast of characters, costumes relative positions, etc. New York: S. French. [1869?] 61, (2) pp. 12° No. 3 in G 84.3.2

Originally published in 1845 (?), and afterwards in 1848, in "The modern standard drama."

512. Same. New York: H. L. Hinton. Booth's Theatre. [1871?] 61, (2) pp. Portrait of E. Booth. 12° l. p. No. 1 in G.83.1

513. Much ado about nothing. From Hudson's School Shakespeare. Boston: Ginn brothers. 1873. (2), 67–138 pp. 12° No. 4 in G.84.4.2

Alteration.

514. The universal passion. A comedy. [By James Miller.] As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane, by his majesty's servants. London: J. Watts. 1737. (8), 76, (1) pp. 8° G.4014.50

The plot in the main and much of the language is from "Much ado." A considerable portion of the play is taken from Molière's "Princesse d'Élide," the language being copied at times nearly verbatim from the translation of Molière's "Select comedies" by James Miller and Johnson, first published in 1732.

Othello.

515. The Tragœdy of Othello, The Moore of Venice. As it hath beene diuerse times acted at the Globe, and at the Black-Friers, by his Maiesties Seruants. Alterations.

599. The history and fall of Caius Marius. A tragedy. As it is acted at the Theatre Royal. By Thomas Otway. London, R. Bentley. 1696. (6), 65, (1) pp. 4° G.4015.4

The parts of Romeo, Juliet, and the nurse, the names being changed, are borrowed almost word for word from Shakespeare's play.

600. Romeo and Juliet, a tragedy, revis'd, and alter'd from Shakespear, by Theophilus Cibber. First reviv'd (in September, 1744,) at the Theatre in the Hay-Market: now acted at the Theatre-Royal, in Drury-Lane. To which is added, A serio-comic apology, for part of the life of Theophilus Cibber, comedian. Written by himself. Interspersed with memoirs and anecdotes, relating to stage-management, theatrical revolutions, etc. Also, cursory observations on some principal players. Concluding with a copy of verses, call'd, The contrite comedian's confession. London: C. Corbett. [1748.] (4), 108 pp. 8° No. 1 in 4013.32

The alterations consist chiefly in representing Romeo and Juliet as in love before the action of the play commences. Some lines are borrowed from Otway's Caius Marius, as well as the whole scene in the last act in which Juliet awakes before Romeo dies. The Apology has a separate title. Genest, in his English stage, vol. iv, p. 263, says that Cibber's assertion, that the play was acted at Drury-Lane, "was doubtless said with a view of promoting the sale of the play, but we must not suppose that it was ever acted at that theatre."

601. Romeo and Juliet. By Shakespear. With alterations, and an additional scene: by D. Garrick. As it is performed at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. London: J. and R. Tonson and S. Draper. 1756. 67 pp. Plate. 12° No. 2 in G.4013.33

All allusion to Romeo's former love, Rosaline, is omitted, and a scene between Romeo and Juliet in the tomb, similar to that in Otway's Caius Marius, is added.

602. Romeo and Juliet. By Shakespear. With alterations, and an additional scene; by D. Garrick. As it is performed at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1766. 72 pp. Plate. 12° No. 1 in G.4013.33

Alterations and imitations.

647. The tempest, or the enchanted island. A comedy. As it is now acted at his highness the Duke of York's Theatre. London, H. Herringman. 1670. (8), 82, (1) pp. 4° No. 6 in G.3814.5.1; G.4013.34

The alterations, which are by John Dryden, assisted by Sir W. Davenant, consist chiefly of the introduction of scenes between "Hippolyto, one that never saw woman, right heir of the dukedom of Mantua," and "Dorinda, daughter to Prospero, that never saw man." "The comical parts of the sailors were his [Davenant's] invention." Preface.

648. The tempest, or the enchanted island. A comedy: as it is now acted at his highness the Duke of York's Theatre. London, H. Herringman. 1676. (8), 81, (1) pp. 4° G.4013.35

649. The tempest, or the enchanted island. A comedy As it is now acted at their majesties Theatre in Dorset-Garden. London, H. Herringman and R. Bentley. 1690. (6), 62 pp. 4° No. 1 in G.4010.8; G.4013.36

650. The tempest: or, the enchanted island. A comedy: as it is now acted, by his majesties servants. London, J. Tonson and T. Bennet, 1701. (6), 60, (1) pp. 4° G.4013.37

The tempest. In Dryden, J. The comedies, tragedies and operas. London, 1701. F° G.300.6.1

651. The tempest. An opera. Taken from Shakespear. As it is performed at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. The songs from Shakespear, Dryden, etc. The music composed by Mr. Smith. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1756. (6), 47 pp. 8° G.4013.38

This alteration has been ascribed to Garrick, and this copy, which belonged to W. E. Burton, is so lettered on the back. Garrick, however, disclaims the authorship in a letter to J. M. French as follows, "If you mean that I was the person who altered the Midsummer night's dream, and the Tempest into operas, you are much mistaken." Foote's Life of A. Murphy, p. 100. G.3937.42 is a manuscript in the handwriting of the author, Garrick, entitled, "A dialogue between an actor and a critic by way of Prologue to the English opera call'd The tempest." This was afterwards printed in the St. James magazine, vol. 1, p. 144, and also in his "Poetical works, London, 1785," where the opera is ascribed to him. No. 1 in G.4060.1 is the music by J. C. Smith.

652. The tempest; or, the enchanted island. Written by Shakspeare; with additions from Dryden: as compiled by J. P. Kemble. And first acted at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, October 13th, 1789. London: J. Debrett. 1789. (4), 56 pp. 8° No. 1 in G.4013.40

653. The desolate island, a mask. By John Burn. In imitation of Shakespear. To which are added, two poems. By the same. Alnwick: printed by J. Catnach. 1791. 24 pp. 12° No. 9 in G.4015.27

The mask is acted by two lovers, some sailors and spirits including Ariel. The poems are "The parting of Hotspur and Lady Percy" and "The battle of Shrewsbury."

654. The virgin queen, a drama in five acts; attempted as a sequel to Shakspeare's Tempest [by Francis Godolphin Waldron]. Printed for the author. 1797. (4), 104 pp. 8° G.4015.17

Caliban, with the aid of Sycorax, Antonio, and Sebastian, overpowers Prospero and his company and causes them to return to the island. Here they are joined by Abdallah, king of Tunis, and Claribel, his virgin queen, who are under the spell of Hyrca, a sorceress. They are finally rescued by Ariel and other spirits.

655. Prospectus; with the songs, chorus, etc., of The enchanted island: a dramatick ballet; founded on Shakspeare's Tempest. By Mr. [John] Fawcett. London: printed for the author by T. Woodfall. [1804.] 27 pp. 8° No. 3 in G.4013.40

On every other page are extracts from "The tempest" to illustrate the action of the ballet.

656. Shakspeare's Tempest; or, the enchanted island, a play, adapted to the stage, with additions from Dryden and Davenant, by J. P. Kemble; and now first published as it is acted at the Theatre Royal in Covent Garden. London: Longman, Hurst, Rees, and Orme. 1806. 62 pp. 8° No. 2 in G.4013.40

657. The tempest, or, the enchanted island; a play, in five acts; by William Shakspeare. Adapted to the stage, with additions from Dryden and Davenant, by J. P. Kemble. The tempest; or, the enchanted island. A comedy. In Dryden, J. Works. Second edition. Edinburgh, 1821. 8° 4607.1.3

661. The tempest. A play, in five acts, by William Shakspeare. Printed from the acting copy, with remarks, biographical and critical, by D.—G [George Daniel]. To which are added, a description of the costume, cast of the characters, entrances and exits, relative positions of the performers on the stage, and the whole of the stage business, as performed at the Theatres Royal, London. Embellished with a fine engraving, by Mr. White, from a drawing taken in the theatre, by R. Cruikshank. London: J. Cumberland. [1827?] 10, 7–50 pp. 12° No. 2 in G.4013.41

662. La tempesta. Grand opera, in three acts, with a prologue. [W. S. Johnson, London. 1850.] 79 pp. 8° G.4015.15

The plot, and that not entirely, is Shakespeare's. The words are by E. Scribe, the music by F. Halévy. The Italian and English texts only are on opposite pages.

Parody.

663. The mock-tempest: or the enchanted castle. Acted at the Theatre Royal. Written by T. Duffett. London, W. Cademan. 1675. (6), 56 pp. 4° G.4015.16

A travesty of Dryden's alteration.

Timon of Athens.

664. Timon of Athens: a tragedy, in five acts, by William Shakspeare. Printed from the acting copy, with remarks, biographical and critical, by D.—G [George Daniel]. To which are added, a description of the costume, cast of the characters, entrances and exits, relative positions of the performers on the stage, and the whole of the stage business. As performed at the Theatres Royal, London. Embellished with a fine engraving, by Mr. Bonner, from a drawing taken in the theatre, by R. Cruikshank. London: J. Cumberland. [1831?] 72 pp. 12° No. 3 in G.84.5

No. 189 of Cumberland's British theatre.

Alterations.

665. The history of Timon of Athens, the man-hater. As it is acted at the Dykes Theatre. Made into a play. By Tho. Shadwell. London, H. Herringman, 1678. (8), 86, (2) pp. 4° G.4015.18

The alteration consists mainly in the introduction of two women, Evandra, who, though deserted by Timon in his prosperity, seeks him out and dies with him in his cave, and Melissa, who is false both to Timon and Alcibiades.

666. The history of Timon of Athens, the man-hater. As it is acted at the Dyke's Theatre. Made into a play. By Tho. Shadwell. London, H. Herringman, 1688. (8), 70, (2) pp. 4 G.4015.19

667. The history of Timon of Athens, the man-hater. As it is acted by his majesties servants. Made into a play. By Tho. Shadwell. London, H. Herringman, 1696. (6), 68, (2) pp. 4° G.4015.20

668. The history of Timon of Athens, the man-hater. As it is acted by her majesty's servants. Made into a play. By Tho. Shadwell. London: H. Hills. [1700?] 87 pp. 12° G.4015.21

The history of Timon of Athens, the man-hater. As it is acted at the Duke's Theatre. Made into a play. In Shadwell, T. Works. London, 1720. 12° G.3815.10.2

669. Timon of Athens. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal on Richmond-Green. Altered from Shakespear and Shadwell. The second edition. London: M. Hingeston. 1768. (4), 100 pp. 8° G.4013.45

This alteration is by James Dance, who wrote under the pseudonym of Love. He borrows from Shadwell most of the scenes in which Evandra appears. The rest is Shakespeare's, with a little original matter.

670. Timon of Athens, altered from Shakespear [by Richard Cumberland]. A tragedy. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. London: printed for the proprietors of Shakespear's works, and sold by T. Becket. 1771. (8), 62 pp. 8° G.4013.46

The alteration consists chiefly in the introduction of Evanthe, the daughter of Timon, beloved of Alcibiades. The fifth act is almost wholly original.

671. Shakspeare's Timon of Athens, as revived at the Theatre Royal, Drury-Lane, on Monday, Oct. 28, 1816. Altered and adapted for representation, by George Lamb. London. C. Chapple. 1816. (4), 53 pp. 8° G.4013.47

"The present attempt has been to restore Shakspeare to the stage, with no other omissions than such as the refinement of manners has rendered necessary." Advertisement.

672. Timon, a play. Now first printed. Edited by Alexander Dyce. London: printed for the Shakespeare society. 1842. vii, (1), 95 pp. 8° G.3927.27; G.3927.28; G.301.8.3; 4596.4; 342.10

This play was printed from a manuscript, written about 1600, and in many respects resembles Shakespeare's "Timon." There is also a reprint in Hazlitt's "Shakespeare's library," London, 1875, G.78.4.6.

Titus Andronicus.

673 The Most Lamentable Tragedie of Titus Andronicus. As It Hath Syndry times beene plaide by the Kings Maiesties Seruants. London, Printed for Eedward White, and are to be solde at his shoppe, nere the little North dore of Pauls, at the signe of the Gun. 1611. (40) ff. 4° G.176.41

The title is a fac-simile by Harris. There is a reprint of this edition in Steevens's "Twenty plays," London, 1766, G.4025.3.3.

Tragedy of Titus Andronicus acted in Germany, about the year 1600, by English players. In Cohn, A. Shakespeare in Germany in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. London, 1865. 4° G.4071.22; G.4071.23; 4591.3

This text is probably taken from an old version of the play. The German text and the English translation are given in parallel columns.

Alteration.

674. Titus Andronicus, or the rape of Lavinia. Acted at the Theatre Royall, a tragedy, alter'd from Mr. Shakespears works, by Edw. Ravenscroft. London, J. Hindmarsh. 1687. (8), 56 pp. 4 G.4013.48

The plot and much of the language are taken from the original play. The alterations are chiefly in the last act, the horrors of which are intensified.

Troilus and Cressida.

675. The Famous Historie of Troylus and Cresseid. Excellently expressing the beginning of their loues, with the conceited wooing of Pandarus Prince of Licia. Written by William Shakespeare. London Imprinted by G. Eld for R. Bonian and H. Walley, and are to be sold at the spred Eagle in Paules Church-yeard, ouer against the great North doore. 1609. (4), 88 ff. Reprint. 4° G.166.27

Another title-page reads "Shakespeare's Troilus and Cressida, facsimiled from the edition printed at London in the year 1609, by Edmund William Ashbee. London: for private circulation only. 1863." It is No. 13 of this set of reprints. There is also a reprint in Steevens's "Twenty plays," London, 1766, G.4025.3.3.

676. Troilus and Cressida: a tragedy, in five acts, by William Shakspeare. With remarks, biographical and critical, by D.—G [George Daniel]. Adapted for stage representation. With a description of the proper costumes, the entrances and exits, relative positions of the performers on the stage, and the whole of the stage business. Embellished with a wood engraving, from a drawing by R. Cruikshank. London: Davidson. [1852.] 76 pp. Plate. 12° No. 4 in G.84.5

No. 385 of Cumberland's British theatre.

Alterations.

677. Troilus and Cressida, or, trvth found too late. A tragedy as it is acted at the Dukes Theatre. To which is prefix'd, a preface containing the grounds of criticism in tragedy. Written by John Dryden, servant to his majesty. London, J. Tonson. 1679. (26), 69, (1) pp. 4° No. 5 in G.3814.5.3; No. 1 in G.4015.22

"I new modelled the plot, threw out many unnecessary persons, improved those characters which were begun and left unfinished, as Hector, Troilus, Pandarus, and Thersites, and added that of Andromache. . . . The whole fifth act, both the plot and the writing, are my own additions." Preface. In G.4015.22 is inserted a leaf containing the lines "To Mr. Dryden," signed "R. Duke," but not that contained in the edition of 1695.

678. Troilus and Cressida, or, truth found too late. A tragedy as it is acted at the Dukes Theatre. To which is prefix'd, a preface containing the grounds of criticism in tragedy. Written by Mr. Dryden. London, J. Tonson. 1695. (26), 69, (1) pp. 4° No. 2 in G.4015.22

679. Twelfth night; or, what you will. A comedy. In five acts; by William Shakspeare. Revised by J. P. Kemble. As now performed at the Theatre Royal, Covent-Garden. London: Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown. [1811?] 76 pp. Plate. 12° G.66.3.18; G.4011.1.5

This is bound with the sets of Mrs. Inchbald's British theatre.

680. Shakspere's Twelfth night; or, what you will: a comedy. Revised by J. P. Kemble; and now published as it is performed at the Theatres Royal. London: J. Miller. 1815. 73 pp. 12° G.3964.2.1; G.4011.2.2

681. French's standard drama. No. LVIII. Twelfth night: or, what you will. A comedy, in five acts. By William Shakspeare. With the stage business, cast of characters, costumes, relative positions, etc. New York: S. French. [1847?] 63 pp. 12° No. 9 in G.84.3.2

There is also an edition published from the same plates in the "Modern standard drama."

The first Boston edition of "Twelfth night," and probably the first of Shakespeare's plays printed in America, was published in 1794, with the following title-page: "Twelfth night; or, what you will: a comedy. In five acts. Written by William Shakespeare. As performed at the Theatre in Boston. With notes critical and illustrative. Boston: printed for David West, No. 36, Marlborough-street, and John West, No. 75, Cornhill." It is a duodecimo, containing 60 pages, with notes at the bottom of the page. Hamlet, printed at or near the same time, has no notes.

Alteration.

682. Love betray'd; or, the agreable disapointment. A comedy. As it was acted at the Theatre in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields. By the author of The ladies visiting-day [Charles Burnaby]. London: D. Brown. 1703. (14), 61 pp. 4° G.4015.24

"Part of the tale of this play, I took from Shakespear [Twelfth night], and about fifty of the lines." Preface.

Two gentlemen of Verona.

683. Bell's edition. Two gentlemen of Verona, by Will. Shakspere: printed complete from the text of Sam. Johnson and Geo. Steevens, and revised from the last editions. London: J. Bell. 1786. 96 pp. Sm. 8°, l. p. G.4013.49

An interleaved copy, containing numerous manuscript notes, possibly by Capel Lloft.

684. Shakspeare's Two gentlemen of Verona, a comedy; revised by J. P. Kemble; and now published as it is performed at the Theatres Royal. London: J. Miller. 1815. 73 pp. 12° G.4011.2.4; G.3964.2.1

Kemble adopts the alterations by Victor in some passages.

685. Songs, ducttos, glees, and choruses, introduced in Shakspeare's revived play of the Two gentlemen of Verona, selected entirely from the plays, poems, and sonnets of Shakspeare [by Frederick Reynolds]. Acted at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden. The overture and whole of the musick (excepting two melodies) composed by Mr. Bishop. London: E. Macleish. [1821?] 15 pp. 8° No. 2 in G.4013.50

686. No. XXIX. French's standard drama. The two gentlemen of Verona. A comedy in five acts. By William Shakspeare. 693. The winter's tale. A play, in five acts. Written by William Shakspeare. With original casts, costumes, and the whole of the stage business, correctly marked and arranged, by J. B. Wright. New York: S. French. [1857?] 68 pp. 12° No. 11 in G.84.3.2

No. 317 of "French's standard drama." Another edition was published from the same plates, with a slight change in the title-page in "Spencer's Boston theatre."

Alterations.

694. The winter's tale, a play. Alter'd from Shakespear. By Charles Marsh. London: printed for C. Marsh, at Cicero's Head. 1756. (2), 78 pp. 8° G.4013.51

The alterations consist chiefly in omitting the first part of the original play, the first act opening immediately before the arrival of the messengers from Delphi. There are also changes in the last act.

695. The winter's tale, a play. Alter'd from Shakespear, by Charles Marsh. The second edition. With a preface, giving some account of this alteration. London: printed for C. Marsh, at Cicero's Head. 1756. vi, 78 pp. 8° G.4013.52

696. Florizel and Perdita. A dramatic pastoral, in three acts. Alter'd from The winter's tale of Shakespear. By David Garrick. As it is performed at the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane. London: J. and R. Tonson. 1758. (4), 66 pp. 8° G.4015.25

The first part of the original play is omitted. Some incidents have been added and others altered. The words are mostly Shakespeare's.

697. The sheep-shearing: or, Florizel and Perdita. A pastoral comedy. Taken from Shakespear. As it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Dublin. The songs set by Mr. Arne. Dublin: P. Wilson. 1767. 27, (1) pp. 12° No. 4 in G.4015.30

This alteration, which is ascribed to Macnamara Morgan, is taken from the fourth and fifth acts, without much change in the language, though some new incidents have been added. It was first published in 1754 under the title "Florizel and Perdita."

698. The sheep-shearing: a dramatic pastoral. In three acts. Taken from Shakespeare. As it is performed at the Theatre Royal in the Hay-Market. London: G. Kearsly. 1777. (3), 39 pp. 8° G.4015.26

This play, which is attributed to George Colman in the "Biographia dramatica," is simply Garrick's alteration cut down.

Florizel and Perdita; or, the sheep-shearing: a dramatic pastoral. In two acts. (Altered from Shakespeare's Winter's tale.) In Collection of farces. Edinburgh, 1792. 12° 2575.35.1

Morgan's alteration.

Parody.

699. Perdita or the royal milkmaid. Being the legend upon which Shakespeare is supposed to have founded his Winter's tale. A new and original burlesque by William Brough. London. T. H. Lacy. [1856.] 39 pp. 12° No. 5 in G.4015.30

Lacy's acting edition, No. 406.

SPURIOUS AND DOUBTFUL PLAYS.

The following titles (Nos. 700–703) include only those editions of the spurious and doubtful plays which were published independently and without the Poems or other plays of Shakespeare. Some of the plays are also to be found in the editions of Shakespeare's collected works published in London, 1664 (No. 9), 1685 (No. 10), 1709 (No. 11), 1728 (No. 16), 1780 (No. 30), 1850 (No. 80), 1852 (No. 85), 1877 (No. 135). References to these editions will also be found under each separate play.

700. A supplement to the plays of William Shakspeare: comprising the seven dramas, which have been ascribed to his pen, but which are not included with his writings in modern editions, namely: The two noble kinsmen, The London prodigal, Thomas Lord Cromwell, Sir John Oldcastle, The Puritan, or the widow of Watling street, The Yorkshire tragedy, The tragedy of Locrine. Edited, with notes, and an introduction to each play, by William Gilmore Simms. The first American edition. New York: George F. Cooledge and brother. 1848. (2), 178 pp. Illustrated. L. 8° G.4016.14

The plays selected are those "only which have been (wholly or in part) ascribed to" Shakespeare. The illustrations are taken from Knight's Pictorial edition.

701. Pseudo-Shakspere'sche Dramen. Herausgegeben von Nicolaus Delius. Erstes-fünftes Heft. Elberfeld, R. L. Friderichs. 1854-74. 2 v. 12° G.4016.16

Contents. 1. Edward III; Arden of Feversham; The birth of Merlin. 2. Mucedorus; Fair Em.

The English text with a Vorrede to each play in German. Each of the plays was published separately with independent title-pages.

702. A supplement to the plays of William Shakspeare: comprising the seven dramas which have been ascribed to his pen, but which are not included with his writings in modern editions, namely: The two noble kinsmen, The London prodigal, Thomas Lord Cromwell, Sir John Oldcastle, The Puritan, or the widow of Watling Street, The Yorkshire tragedy, The tragedy of Locrine. Edited, with notes, and an introduction to each play, by William Gilmore Simms. Philadelphia: Jas B. Smith and co. 1855. (2), 178 pp. L. 8° G.4016.15; 4595.1

This is the same edition as No. 700, with a new title-page, simply changing the place and publisher. An engraved title-page, which was in the first edition, is omitted in this. Inserted in G.4016.15 is a manuscript memorandum of the editor.

703. Doubtful plays of William Shakespeare. [Edited by Max Moltke.] Leipzig: B. Tauchnitz. 1869. vi, (2), 352 pp. Sm. 8 6599.9

Contents. King Edward III; Thomas Lord Cromwell; Locrine; A Yorkshire tragedy; The London prodigal; The birth of Merlin.

"In the present volume, which is intended to serve as a supplement to Shakespeare's works, I have . . . selected those six pieces, which, according to my firm conviction, bear the most unmistakable traces of Shakespeare's authorship." Introductory remarks. Collection of British authors, Tauchnitz edition, vol. 1041.

Arden of Feversham.

704. The lamentable and trve tragedie of M. Arden, of Feversham, in Kent. Who was most wickedlye murdered, by the means of his disloyall and wanton wyfe, who for the loue she bare to one Mosbie, hyred two desperat ruffins, Blackwill and Shagbag, to kill him. Wherein is shewed, the great malice and discimulation of a wicked woman, the vnsatiable desire of filthie lust, and the shamefull end of all murderers. With a preface; in which some reasons are offered, in favour of its being the earliest dramatic work of Shakespear now remaining; and a genuine account given of the murder from authentic papers of the time [by Edward Jacob]. London: printed for Edward White. 1592. And re-printed verbatim by J. and J. March, for Stephen Doorne, bookseller at Feversham. 1770. (2), vi, (2), 88, (1) pp. 8° G.4016.17 ; G.4016.18

Spurious works.

723. A compendious or briefe examination of certayne ordinary complaints, of diuers of our country men in these our dayes: which although they are in some part vniust and friuolous, yet are they all by way of dialogues throughly debated and discussed. By W. S. Gentleman. Imprinted at London in Fleetstreate, neere vnto Saincte Dunstones Church, by Thomas Marshe. 1581. (4), 55 ff. Coat of arms. Black letter. 4° G.4016.40; 2529.21

A treatise on political economy by William Stafford, the running-title of which is "A briefe Conceipte of English pollicy."

724. A compendious or briefe examination of certayne ordinary complaints of diuers of our countrymen in these our dayes: which although they are in some parte vnjust and friuolous, yet are they all, by way of dialogue, throughly debated and discussed by William Shakespeare, Gentleman. Imprinted at London. . . . Reprinted by Charles Marsh and A. Jackson. 1751. (10), 9-120 pp. 8° G.4016.41

The reference by Stafford in his dedication to queen Elizabeth to her "clemency, in pardoninge certayne my vndutifull misdemeanour," he having been engaged in a conspiracy against her, has led the editors of this edition to ascribe the work to Shakespeare, on the ground that his deer-stealing was the misdemeanor referred to.

725. Cupid's cabinet vnlock't, or, the new accademy of complements. Odes, epigrams, songs, and sonnets, poesies, presentations, congratulations, ejaculations, rhapsodies, etc. With other various fancies. Created partly for the delight, but chiefly for the use of all ladies, gentlemen, and strangers, who affect to speak elegantly, or write queintly. By W. Shakespear. n. p., n. d. (2), 148 pp. Imperfect. 12° G.176.62

According to a printed slip from some catalogue pasted in the cover, this is a unique copy of a book, probably published about 1645 in London, by Humphrey Mosely. Pp. 33–56 and all after p. 148 are missing. Bound with this work is a fragment of another work printed in the same style, the running-title of which is "The art of courtship."

POEMS.

726. A collection of poems, viz. I. Venus and Adonis. II. The rape of Lucrece. III. The passionate pilgrim. IV. Sonnets to sundry notes of musick. By Mr. William Shakespeare. London, B. Lintott. [1709.] (4), 155 pp. Sm. 8° G.4061.4

This is vol. 1 of the succeeding edition (No. 727), the only difference being that the title-pages to the various parts bear the dates, 1630, 1632, 1599, 1599. Lowndes, who does not seem to have known of the two-volume edition, says of this: "Edited by Charles Gildon; forming the seventh volume of the first small edition of the Works." He is wrong in this last assertion, see No. 12. Under the "Passionate pilgrim" is included only the first 22 stanzas of the poem. The "Sonnets to sundry notes of musicke" contain the latter part of the poem commencing with, "It was a lording's daughter." "Mr. Oldys, in one of his manuscripts, says they were set [to music] by John and Thomas Morley." Malone.

727. A collection of poems, in two volumes; being all the miscellanies of Mr. William Shakespeare, which were publish'd by himself in the year 1609, and now correctly printed from those editions. The first volume contains, I. Venus and Adonis. II. The rape of Lucrece. III. The passionate pilgrim. IV. Some sonnets set to sundry notes of musick. The second volume contains one hundred and fifty four sonnets, all of them in praise of his mistress. II. A lover's complaint of his angry mistress. London: B. Lintott. [1710?] (6), 155; (4), 98 pp. 2 v. in 1. Sm. 8° G.4061.3

The four parts of vol. 1 have separate title-pages with "Printed in the year 1609" upon them. G.4061.5 is a copy of vol. 2.

728. Shakespeare's Poems: containing, I. Venus and Adonis. II. The rape of Lucrece. III. The passionate pilgrim. IV. Sonnets. Dublin: T. Ewing. 1771. 212 pp. Sm. 8° G.4026.1.13

This edition, which includes the spurious poems published in the edition of 1640 (No. 743), and follows that edition in the arrangement of, and the titles to, the Sonnets, etc., is bound as vol. 13 of Ewing's Plays of Shakespeare (No. 27).

729. Poems written by Mr. William Shakespeare. Reprinted for T. Evans. [1775?] viii, 250 pp. Portrait, the Chandos altered. 8° G.4061.10

Contents. Venus and Adonis; Tarquin and Lucrece; Poems on several occasions.

The "Poems on several occasions" are the poems ascribed to Shakespeare in the edition of 1640, the arrangement of, and titles to, the Sonnets being the same. The portrait is upon the title-page.

730. Venus und Adonis; Tarquin und Lukrezia. Zwei Gedichte von Shakespeare. Aus dem Englischen übersezt [von H. C. Albrecht]. Mit beigedruktem Original. Halle, J. J. Gebauer. 1783. xviii, 305 pp. 8° G.4061.21; G.4061.22

The poetical works of William Shakespeare. To which is prefixed the Life of the author. In Anderson, R., editor. Complete edition of the poets of Great Britain. London, 1793. 8° 4604.1.2

731. The poems of William Shakspeare: viz. Venus and Adonis, The rape of Lucrece, Sonnets, The passionate pilgrim and The lover's complaint, with Mr. Capell's history of the origin of Shakspeare's fables. To which is added a glossary. Ornamented with three portraits, by Bartolozzi, etc. London: E. Jeffery. [1708?] (2), 22, (6), 233, (30) pp. 8° G.4061.9

The portraits are the Chandos, engraved by S. Harding, and that of the Earl of Southampton. The portrait of Capell is missing from this copy.

732. Poems by William Shakespeare. With illustrative remarks, original and select. To which is prefixed a sketch of the author's life. With engravings. In 2 v. London: C. Chapple. 1804. Portrait, the Chandos altered. Sm. 8° G.4061.11

Contents. 1. Memoir, by W. C. Oulton; Venus and Adonis; Tarquin and Lucrece. 2. Poems on several occasions.

The contents of vol. 2 are the same as those ascribed to Shakespeare in the edition of 1640. The Sonnets are also arranged under the same titles.

Lucrece.

741. The Rape of Lucrece, Committed by Tarquin the Sixt; And The remarkable judgments that befel him for it. By The incomparable Master of our English Poetry, Will: Shakespeare Gent. Whereunto is annexed. The Banishment of Tarquin: Or, the Reward of Lust. By J. Quarles. London. Printed by J. G. for John Stafford in George-yard neer Fleet-bridge, and Will: Gilbertson at the Bible in Giltspur-street, 1655. (6), 71, (4), 12 pp. Frontispiece. Portrait. Sm. 8° G.176.60

In the frontispiece is a medallion portrait of Shakespeare, taken from the Droeshout. Quarles's poem has a separate title-page and is independently paged.

Songs and sonnets.

742. Shake-speares Sonnets. Neuer before Imprinted. At London By G. Eld for T. T. and are to be solde by William Aspley. 1609. (2), (40) ff. Reprint. 4° G.166.19; 2597.39

From the unrivalled original in the Library of Bridgewater House, by permission of the right hon. the Earl of Ellesmere. London: Lovell Reeve and co. 1862."

A reprint of this edition is also to be found in Steevens's "Twenty plays, London, 1766," G.4025.3.4. G.4061.8 is another copy, separately issued, of the Steevens reprint. It was also reprinted in London, 1870 (No. 758).

743. Poems: Written by Wil. Shake-speare. Gent. Printed at London by Tho. Cotes, and are to be sold by Iohn Benson, dwelling in St. Dunstans Church-yard. 1640. (191) pp. Portrait, the Marshall. Sm. 8° G.176.61

Contents. To the reader, by I. B.; Verses, by Leon. Digges and John Warren; Poems by Will. Shakespeare Gent.; An addition of some excellent poems, to those precedent, of renowned Shakespeare, by other gentlemen: His mistresse drawne, by B. I.; Her minde, by B. I.; To Ben. Iohnson, by F. B.; His mistris shade; Lavinia walking in a frosty morning; A sigh sent to his mistresse; An allegorical allusion of melancholy thoughts to bees, by I. G.; The primrose; A sigh; A blush; Orpheus lute; Am I dispised? Vpon a gentlewoman walking on the grasse; On his love going to sea; Aske me no more.

The poems ascribed to Shakespeare are the Sonnets, with the exception of Nos. 18, 19, 43, 56, 75, 76, 96, 126, rearranged under various titles. Interspersed with them are "A lover's complaint" and "The passionate pilgrim," together with the verses from "As you like it," commencing "Why should this desart be." In addition to these are the following translations from Ovid: "The Tale of Cephalus and Procris, That Menelaus was cause of his owne wrongs, Vulcan was Iupiters Smith, The History how the Mynotaure was begot, This Mynotaure, when hee came to growth, was incloased in the Laborinth, Achilles his concealement of his sex, The amorous Epistle of Paris to Hellen, Hellen to Paris." The last two were included in Jaggard's edition of "The passionate pilgrim," published in 1612, but Thos. Heywood, in his "Apology for actors," published in the same year, claims them as his own, and they are to be found in his "Troja Brittannica," printed in 1609. Lowndes says "Some of these poems are copied from Thomas Heywood's General history of Women." Following these are Milton's "Epitaph," "On the death of Shakespeare," by W. B., and "An elegie on the death of that famous writer and actor, M. William Shakspeare."

In the editions of Shakespeare's works published in 1710, 1714, 1725, 1807, 1810 (the last two in Boston), and of his Poems published in 1771, 1775, 1804, the poems ascribed to him in this edition are reprinted with the same arrangement and under the same titles.

This translation, which was begun against the bitterest opposition of Voltaire, was nevertheless successful in diminishing and qualifying the national prejudice against Shakespeare, and in introducing the study of his works. Though (from Le Tourneur's strict adherence to the laws of dramatic construction then in force, and his being obliged to render the poetry into prose), so exceedingly faulty as a translation as to amount to an imitation and at times to a parody of the original, yet it is marked by scholarship, and appreciation of Shakespeare's genius. His name, as translator, does not appear upon the title-page until the third volume, but is given in the "Épitre au roi" in vol. 1, together with his two collaborators in the first three volumes, the comte de Catuelan and Jean Fontaine-Malherbe. The notes are rarely original, but are taken from Warburton, Steevens, Johnson, Eschenburg and others. Pericles and the Poems are omitted, and some of the plays are much abbreviated. The engravings, referred to in the Prospectus in vol. 1, do not appear to have been published.

789. Œuvres complètes de Shakspeare, traduites de l'anglais par Letourneur. Nouvelle édition, revue et corrigée par F. Guizot et A[médée] P[ichot] traducteur de Lord Byron; précédée d'une notice biographique et littéraire sur Shakspeare; par F. Guizot. Paris, Ladvocat. 1821. 13 v. 8 G.4051.1

Contents. 1. Vie, par F. P. G. Guizot; Vénus et Adonis, suivi de Lucrece et Tarquin, par A. Pichot; Choix de sonnets, par A. Pichot; Hamlet. 2. La tempête; Coriolan; Jules César. 3. Antoine et Cléopâtre; Les méprises; Macbeth. 4. Timon d'Athenes; Le songe d'une nuit d'été; Roméo et Juliette. 5. Othello; Les deux gentilshommes de Vérone; Troïlus et Cressida. 6. Le roi Lear; Comme il vous plaira; Titus Andronicus. 7. Beaucoup de bruit pour rien; Cymbeline; La douzieme nuit. 8. La vie et la mort du roi Jean; Mesure pour mesure; Le conte d'hiver. 9. La vie et la mort de Richard II; La méchante femme mise à la raison; Tout est bien qui finit bien. 10. Henri IV, partie 1, 2; Les joyeuses bourgeoises de Windsor. 11. Henry V; Henry VI, partie 1, 2. 12. Henri VI, partie 3; Richard III; Peines d'amour perdues. 13. Henri VIII; Périclès; Le marchand de Venise.

Though this bears the name of Le Tourneur, yet the translation has been so revised as to leave few traces of his work. That which was omitted in the first edition has been supplied in this, and the notes replaced by new and mostly original ones. Guizot contributed the life, the historical and critical notices, and revised the translation of the six principal tragedies, ten historical plays, and three comedies. Quérard says "par F. Guizot, ou plûtot Mad. Guizot née Dillon." Barante aided in the translation of Hamlet and wrote some of the introductions. The rest of the revision, together with the translation of the poems, was by Amedée Pichot. Guizot's life, up to that time, was the most important contribution to the study of Shakespeare's life and works in France. Vol. 10 is dated 1820. The life and the introductions written by Guizot were published separately with other matter under the title, "Shakspeare et son temps, Paris, 1852," G.5011.14; and in an English translation, "Shakespeare and his times," London, 1852, G.3011.15, and New York, 1852, G.77.0.

The third edition of Wieland's translation. The second, edited by Eschenburg, was published in Zurich 1775–82, and contains the remaining plays together with the spurious ones. These latter, with Pericles, have been omitted in this edition. The translations are all in prose, with the exception of Midsummer-night's dream, by Wieland, and Richard III, by Eschenburg. Many of the notes are taken from the variorum editions of Johnson and Steevens. Inserted in vol. 1 is an autograph letter of Eschenburg dated May 9, 1806.

833. Shakspeare's Schauspiele von Johann Heinrich Voss und dessen Söhnen Heinrich Voss und Abraham Voss. Mit Erläuterungen. Leipzig: F. A. Brockhaus. 1818–29. 9 v. 8° G.4054.1

Tieck; König Johann; Richard II; Heinrich IV, Theil 1, 2. 2. Heinrich V; Heinrich VI, Theil 1, 2, 3. 3. Richard III; Heinrich VIII; Sommernachtstraum; Viel Lärmen um Nichts; Anmerkungen zum ersten—dritten Bande. 4. Heilige-drey-Königs-Abend, oder Was ihr wollt; So wie es euch gefällt; Der Kaufmann von Venedig; Der Sturm; Anmerkungen. 5. Coriolanus; Julius Cäsar; Antonius und Cleopatra; Maass für Maass; Anmerkungen. 6. Titus Andronicus; Hamlet; Der Widerspenstigen Zähmung; Die Comödie der Irrungen. 7. Ende gut alles gut; Die beiden Veroneser; Timon von Athen; Troilus und Cressida; Anmerkungen zum sechsten, siebenten Bande. 8. Die lustigen Weiber von Windsor; Das Wintermährchen; Othello; König Lear. 9. Cymbeline; Liebes Leid und Lust; Romeo und Julia; Macbeth; Anmerkungen zum achten, neunten Bande; Nachwort; Druckfehler.

The first edition, edited by Tieck, of Schlegel's translation. Tieck does not appear to have translated the whole of any of the plays, though portions, especially of Macbeth, are by him. He confined himself to revising the whole work, paying particular attention to the text, for which he took the first folio as a basis. He also wrote the notes. His corrections and alterations of Schlegel's translations were repudiated by the latter, and in succeeding editions the original text and metres were restored, except in passages revised by Schlegel himself. Tieck's daughter Dorothea translated, under his supervision, Coriolanus, Two gentlemen of Verona, Timon, Winter's tale, Cymbeline, and Macbeth, and also parts of Much ado about nothing and Taming of the shrew. Henry VIII, Much ado about nothing, Antony and Cleopatra, Measure for measure, Merry wives of Windsor, Othello, King Lear, Titus Andronicus, Taming of the shrew, Comedy of errors, All's well that ends well, Troilus and Cressida, and Love's labour's lost were translated by Graf Wolf von Baudissin. Pericles was not included in this edition.

835. Shakespeare's Dramatische Werke, übersetzt und erläutert von Johann Wilhelm Otto Benda. Dreizehnter Band. Leipzig, G. J. Göschen. 1826. Incomplete. 16° 6599.5

Contents. 13. Hamlet, Prinz von Dänemark.

836. W. Shakspeare's sämmtliche Werke in einem Bande. Im Verein mit Mehreren übersetzt, und herausgegeben von Julius Körner. Mit 40 Holzschnitten vermehrte Ausgabe. Leipzig, Baumgärtner's Buchhandlung. 1838. xii, 932 pp. Portrait, the Chandos. L. 8° G.4064.1

The tempest, Two gentlemen of Verona, Merchant of Venice, King John, Romeo and Juliet, Henry V, Richard III, Othello, Macbeth, Julius Cæsar, and Antony and Cleopatra were translated by J. Körner, who also wrote the Vorrede and Bruchstücke aus Shakspeare's Leben. Twelfth night, Merry wives of Windsor, Measure for measure, As you like it, Taming of the shrew, Richard II, Henry VI, part 1, 2, 3, Coriolanus, and Cymbeline were translated by H. Döring; King Lear and Comedy of errors by C. F. von Jariges under the pseudonym of Beauregard Pandin; Timon of Athens by G. Regis; Midsummer-night's dream, Much ado about nothing, Love's labour's lost, All's well that ends well, Winter's tale, Henry IV, part 1, 2, Henry VIII, Hamlet, Troilus and Cressida, Titus Andronicus, and Pericles, by G. N. Bärmann; the Poems, by Carl Richter. Inserted is an autograph letter of Körner's, dated July 16, 1819.

837. Shakspeare's dramatische Werke übersetzt von Aug. Wilh. v. Schlegel und Ludwig Tieck. Berlin, G. Reimer. 1839–41. 12 v. Sm. 8° G.4055.1

Contents. 1. König Johann; Richard II; Heinrich IV, Theil 1. 2. Heinrich IV, Theil 2; Heinrich V; Heinrich VI, Theil 1. 3. Heinrich VI, Theil 2, 3; Richard III. 4. Heinrich VIII; Romeo und Julia; Ein Sommernachtstraum. 5. Julius Cäsar; Was ihr wollt; Der Sturm. 6. Hamlet; Der Kaufmann von Venedig; Wie es euch gefällt. 7. Der Widerspenstigen Zähmung; Viel Lärmen um Nichts; Die Comödie der Irrungen. 8. Die beiden Veroneser; Coriolanus; Liebes Leid und Lust. 9. Die lustigen Weiber von Windsor; Titus Andronicus; Das Wintermährchen. 10. Antonius und Cleopatra; Maass für Maass; Timon von Athen. 11. König Lear; Troilus und Cressida; Ende gut, Alles gut. 12. Othello; Cymbeline; Macbeth.

In vol. 1, only, after the titles of the plays is "Uebersetzt und aufs neue durchgesehen von A. W. von Schlegel." The corrections and alterations of these plays made by Tieck in the edition of 1825–33 (No. 834) have been omitted in this, as well as Tieck's notes. In the succeeding volumes, however, the notes have been retained. Inserted in vol. 1 is an autograph letter of Schlegel, dated March 6, 1827, giving some account of his work upon Shakespeare and criticising Tieck.

838. William Shakspeare's sämmtliche dramatische Werke. In neuen Uebersetzungen von A. Böttger, H. Döring, A. Fischer, L. Hilsenberg, W. Lampadius, Th. Mügge, Th. Oelckers, E. Ortlepp, L. Petz, K. Mac Beth; Gebrochner Trutzkopf; Der versoffene Kesselflicker; Ende gut alles gut; Ein Mährchen bei'm Camin. 5. Die Freunde von Oporto; Die boshaften Windsorerinnen; Dreikönigsabend; Seesturm; Ein Traum der Johannisnacht. 6. Romeo und Giuletta; Venediger Handelschaft; Nach Belieben; Amleth der Däne. 7. König Johann; Richard II; Heinrich IV, Theil 1, 2; Heinrich V. 8. Heinrich VI, Theil 1, 2, 3; Richard III; Heinrich VIII.

Keller translated Timon, Titus Andronicus, Pericles, Troilus and Cressida, Coriolanus, Julius Cæsar, Antony and Cleopatra, King John, Richard II, Henry IV, Henry V, Henry VI, Richard III, Henry VIII. Rapp translated Othello, Cymbeline, King Lear, Comedy of errors, Much ado about nothing, Measure for measure, Love's labour's lost, Macbeth, Taming of the shrew, All's well that ends well, Winter's tale, Two gentlemen of Verona, Merry wives of Windsor, Twelfth night, Tempest, Midsummer-night's dream, Romeo and Juliet, Merchant of Venice, As you like it, Hamlet. Rapp has taken great liberties with several of the plays, in some cases changing the scene, and altering the names of the dramatis personæ, at the same time keeping strictly to the text of the original. A second edition appeared in 1854. Inserted in vol. 1 is an autograph letter from Keller to Prof. O. L. B. Wolff dated June 17, 1837. The translation is in verse, and there are introductions and a few notes. Each play was published independently.

Shakspere's Werke. Herausgegeben und erklärt von Nicolaus Delius. Elberfeld, 1854-65. R. L. Friderichs. 8 v. Portrait, the Chandos. 8° G.4042.1

Contents. 1. Hamlet; Othello; King Lear; Macbeth; Timon of Athens; Titus Andronicus. 2. Romeo and Juliet; Cymbeline; Troilus and Cressida; Coriolanus; Julius Cæsar; Antony and Cleopatra. 3. King John; Richard II; Henry IV, part 1, 2; Henry V. 4. Henry VI, part 1; Part 2: Einleitung, including "The first part of the contention of Yorke and Lancaster;" Part 3: Einleitung, including "The true tragedie of Richard duke of Yorke;" Richard III; Henry VIII. 5. Two gentlemen of Verona; Comedy of errors; Love's labour's lost; All's well that ends well; Midsummer-night's dream; Taming of the shrew; Merchant of Venice. 6. Much ado about nothing; Merry wives of Windsor; Twelfth night; As you like it; Measure for measure; Winter's tale; Tempest. 7. Pericles; Poems; Biographische Nachrichten; Index. [8.] Nachträge und Berichtigungen. Mit dem Portrait Shakspere's.

The text is in English, the introductions and notes in German. The plays were all published separately and have independent title-pages. Vol. 7 is dated 1861; the supplemental volume 1865 and contains the Chandos portrait. G.4012.23 is a copy of Hamlet.

841. Shakspere's dramatische Werke übersetzt von August Wilhelm von Schlegel und Ludwig Tieck. Sechste Octav-Ausgabe. Berlin. G. Reimer. 1863–65. 12 v. Portrait, the Droeshout. Sm. 8° 6595.14

The contents are the same as in the edition of 1839-41 (No. 837), with the exception that Tieck's notes to all the plays are given. At the end is a Nachwort by the editor, Tycho Mommsen, who has given a nearly new translation of Macbeth, in which are included the fragments found in Schlegel's "Nachlass."

842. William Shakespeare's sämmtliche Werke. (Dramen und Gedichte.) Deutsche Volksausgabe. Neu durchgesehen und mit einer Biographie, Einleitungen zu sämmtlichen Stücken und einem Spruchregister herausgegeben von Max Moltke. In einem Bande. Mit Shakespeare's Bildniss und gegen dreihundert eingedruckten Holzschnitten. Leipzig, Shakespeare-Verlag. [1865. 66.] Sm. 8° G.4054.3

The translation is that known as Joseph Meyer's, first published in 1826–34. He translated, however, only Macbeth, Othello, Tempest, Comedy of errors, Julius Cæsar, Timon of Athens, Titus Andronicus, King John, Pericles, Two gentlemen of Verona, and King Lear. The other plays were translated "unter Aufsicht von H. Döring." The poems were translated by R. S. Schneider. The vignettes are the same as those in Wheeler's edition, London, 1832 (No. 66). The plays were issued separately and are independently paged. No. 9 in G.3910.15 is another copy of "Der Kaufmann von Venedig."

843. Shakespeare's dramatische Werke nach der Uebersetzung von August Wilhelm Schlegel und Ludwig Tieck sorgfältig revidirt und theilweise neu bearbeitet, mit Einleitungen und Noten versehen, unter Redaction von H. Ulrici herausgegeben durch die Deutsche Shakespeare-Gesellschaft. Berlin. G. Reimer. 1867, 71. 12 v. 8° G.94.1

Contents. 1. Vorwort; Geschichte Shakespeare's und seiner Dichtung von H. Ulrici; König Johann; Richard II; Heinrich IV, Theil 1. 2. Heinrich IV, Theil 2; Heinrich V; Heinrich VI, Theil 1. 3. Heinrich VI, Theil 2, 3; Richard III. 4. Heinrich VIII; Romeo und Julia; Ein Sommernachtstraum. 5. Julius Cäsar; Was ihr wollt; Der Sturm. 6. Hamlet; Der Kaufmann von Venedig; Wie es euch gefällt. 7. Der Widerspenstigen Zähmung; Viel Lärmen um Nichts; Liebes Leid und Lust. 8. Coriolanus; Die Comödie der Irrungen; Die beiden Veroneser. 9. Die lustigen Weiber von Windsor; Das Wintermährchen; Titus Andronicus. 10. Antonius und Cleopatra; Mass für Mass; Timon von Athen. 11. König Lear; Troilus und Cressida; Ende gut, Alles gut. 12. Othello; Macbeth; Cymbelin.

All the plays in the first six volumes except three were edited by A. Schmidt, together with Much ado about nothing, Merry wives of Windsor, Winter's tale, Antony and Cleopatra, Measure for measure, King Lear and Othello. W. A. B. Hertzberg translated and edited King Henry VIII, Love's labour's lost, Comedy of errors, Two gentlemen of Verona, Titus Andronicus, Troilus and Cressida, All's well that ends well, and Cymbeline. Coriolanus was translated by G. Herwegh and edited by Ulrici, and Macbeth was translated by F. A. Leo. King John, Hamlet, Taming of the shrew, and Timon of Athens were edited by K. Elze.

844. William Shakespeare's dramatische Werke. Uebersetzt von Friedrich Bodenstedt, Ferdinand Freiligrath, Otto Gildemeister, Paul Heyse, Hermann Kurz, Adolf Wilbrandt u a. Nach der Textrevision und unter Mitwirkung von Nicolaus Delius. Mit Einleitungen und Anmerkungen. Herausgegeben von Friedrich Bodenstedt. Leipzig: F. A. Brockhaus. 1867, 71. 38 v. Sm. 8° 6598.38

Contents. 1. Othello, von F. Bodenstedt. 2. König Johann, von O. Gildemeister. 3. Antonius und Kleopatra, von P. Heyse. 4. Die lustigen Weiber von Windsor, von H. Kurz. 5. Gildemeister. 22. Titus Andronicus, von N. Delius. 23. Was ihr wollt oder Heiliger Dreikönigsabend, von O. Gildemeister. 24. Die beiden Veroneser, von G. Herwegh. 25. Hamlet, von F. Bodenstedt. 26. Verlorene Liebesmüh, von O. Gildemeister. 27. Zähmung einer Widerspenstigen, von G. Herwegh. 28. Der Sturm, von F. Bodenstedt. 29. Die Komödie der Irrungen, von G. Herwegh. 30. Das Wintermärchen, von O. Gildemeister. 31. Perikles, von N. Delius. 32. Julius Cäsar, von O. Gildemeister. 33. Mass für Mass, von F. Bodenstedt. 34. Ende gut, alles gut, von G. Herwegh. 35. Cymbelin, von O. Gildemeister. 36. Troilus und Cressida, von G. Herwegh. 37. Wie es euch gefällt, von G. Herwegh. 38. William Shakespeare. Ein Rückblick auf sein Leben und Schaffen, von F. Bodenstedt.

The plays were published separately with independent title-pages in addition to the general title-page. This latter was changed at volume 22 by the addition of the names of Delius and Herwegh to the transfators. In Brockhaus' catalogue of his publications, it is said that Freiligrath promised to assist in the translation but was prevented from so doing. His name is omitted from the title-pages on the covers of vols. 23, 32, 35–38.

845. Shakespeare's dramatische Werke übersetzt von August Wilhelm v. Schlegel und Ludwig Tieck. [Durchgesehen von Michael Bernays.] Berlin, G. Reimer. 1871–73. 12 v. Sm. 8° G.98.6

The contents are the same as in the edition of 1836–41 (No. 847), with the exception of a Vorwort and Nachwort by the editor. In Macbeth, act 1, scene 1, 2, the fragment of Schlegel's translation has been introduced.

846. Shakespeare's dramatische Werke übersetzt von August Wilhelm von Schlegel und Ludwig Tieck. Herausgegeben von Richard Gosche und Benno Tschischwitz. Erste illustrirte Ausgabe. Berlin, G. Grote'sche Verlagsbuchhandlung. 1874. 8 v. Portrait, the Chandos. Sm. 8° G.98.7

Volume the third. The School of Shakespeare: or, authentic extracts from divers English books, that were in print in that author's time; evidently shewing from whence his several fables were taken, and some parcel of his dialogue; also, further extracts, from the same or like books, which or contribute to a due understanding of his writings, or give light to the history of his life, or to the dramatic history of his time. With a preface, and index of books extracted.

The third volume contains also an "Index, of words and phrases;" "Notitia dramatica; or, tables of ancient plays, (from their beginning, to the restoration of Charles the second) so many as have been printed, with their several editions: faithfully compiled, and digested in quite new method, by E. C. With a preface."

The first part of Volume 1 is simply the "Notes" issued in 1774, with a different Advertisement and a dedication by the editor. The second part of vol. 1 and the first part of vol. 2 were printed in 1779, and the second part of vol. 2 in 1780. The work was published, according to Nichols, in 1783.

1150. Prolusions: or, select pieces of antient poetry,—compil'd with great care from their several originals, and offer'd to the publick as specimens of the integrity that should be found in the editions of worthy authors,—in three parts; containing, I. Edwards, Thomas, 1699–1757.

1343. A supplement to Mr. Warburton's edition of Shakespear. Being the Canons of criticism, and glossary, collected from the notes in that celebrated work, and proper to be bound up with it. By another gentleman of Lincoln's inn. London, M. Cooper. 1748. 62 pp. 8°
No. 1 in G.4023.2; No. 4 in G.4023.9

G.4023.2 belonged to the author and contains the first, third and fourth editions bound together, with many manuscript notes and corrections, together with two indexes also in his handwriting. This volume, according to a note pasted upon the fly-leaf, was presented by Mr. Pain to Benjamin Way, whose bookplate is in it, as well as in the first copy of the seventh edition. It also belonged to Richard Heber and to John Mitford, whose autograph it contains. See Warburton's note in respect to Edwards in Pope's "Dunciad," B. IV, line 567, and also Nichols's "Literary anecdotes," vol. 2, pp. 198–201.

There are also many manuscript notes of Edwards in Theobald's edition of Shakespeare, No. 17, and a portrait of him in G.4034.1.1.

1344. Same. The second edition. London, M. Cooper. 1748. 64 [62] pp. 8° No. 3 in G.4023.9

The same as the first edition, except the paging and a few typographical changes.

1345. Same. The Canons of criticism, and glossary, being a supplement to Mr. Warburton's edition of Shakespear. Collected from the notes in that celebrated work, and proper to be bound up with it. By the other gentleman of Lincoln's Inn. The third edition. London, C. Bathurst. 1750. (10), 3–23, (1), 175, (1) pp. 8°
No. 2 in G.4023.2; G.4023.3; G.4023.4

He "received considerable assistance" in the preparation of this edition from Richard Roderick. "I have added a few new Canons, and given a great many more examples to the others." Preface.

1346. Same. The fourth edition. London, C. Bathurst. 1750. (8), 3–23, (3), 179, (2) pp. 8°
No. 3 in G.4023.2

1347. Same. The fifth edition. London, C. Bathurst. 1753. (12), 3–23, (1), 179, (18) pp. 8° G.4023.5

Three Sonnets have been prefixed and the Indexes added to this edition.

1348. Same. The sixth edition, with additions. London, C. Bathurst. 1758. (12), 7–31, 1–238, 251–325, (14) pp. 8° G.4023.6

This edition has the additional title-page, "The canons of criticism and glossary; the trial of the letter Y alias Y, and Sonnets. By Thomas Edwards." This is followed by an advertisement containing a short account of the author. A cancelled leaf containing the letter to Dr. Warburton, but without the note explaining the reason for the Dedication and Preface, is inserted. The Trial has a separate title-page, but is paged continuously with the Canons. It also contains, p. 212–238, Remarks on Shakespear by Richard Roderick.

1349. Same. The seventh edition, with additions. London: C. Bathurst. 1765. 351, (14) pp. 8° G.4023.7; G.4023.8; 2596.3

Exactly the same as the sixth edition, with different paging only. Pages 277–304 are improperly numbered 251–278 from the printer's neglecting to alter the numbers, which are those of the sixth edition. Bound at the end of G.4023.7 are leaves containing manuscript stanzas: Ode to Cynthia, by Miss Farrer; Also a letter of T. Edwards to Mr. Richardson, July 18, 1754; and an Ode to Spring, by Miss Farrer of Huntingdon; Sonnet by Miss Highmore; Ode by Miss Mulso, occasioned by reading Sonnets by T. Edwards. It is also partially interleaved and has manuscript notes. It belonged to Ben. Way and contains his bookplate.

On the title-page, after the word by, is a picture of Falstaff. The title in the preface is "Falstaff's annual," and the first piece is "Falstaff's festival," a parody on Dryden's "Alexander's feast."

1373. A NEW pantomime entertainment call'd Shakespear's choice spirits or Falstaff in pantomime, 1763. 2 manuscripts. Sm. 8° G.3935.3

A pantomime performed at Sadler's wells in 1763 and revived in 1768. The first of the two MSS. is in the writing of Thomas Rosoman, the builder and proprietor conjointly with Sadler, of Sadler's Wells; the second, somewhat altered and having the words of the recitative and of the songs, contains a few notes by him. They were given by Charles Dibdin to T. F. Ridgway, the Harlequin, an occasional performer at the Surrey and other theatres. It does not appear to have been published.

The aim of this work was to propose a grand illustrated edition of Shakespeare. Various passages in Titus Andronicus, Coriolanus, Taming of the shrew, Merchant of Venice, Love's labour lost, All's well that ends well, Comedy of errors, Troilus and Cressida, Midsummer night's dream, in the first part, and King Henry v, Romeo and Juliet, and Cymbeline in the second part, are quoted with reference to their forming appropriate subjects for pictures. References are made to the various Shakespeare portraits and illustrations.

1412. Harlequin's invasion with transparency's etc. 53 pp. Manuscript. 8° G.3936.1

A Christmas pantomime produced Dec. 31, 1759, representing Harlequin's invasion of Parnassus and the territory of Shakespeare. Genest, "English stage," vol. 4, p. 580, suggests that the pantomime is founded on one acted in 1741 at Goodman's Fields. Possibly it was "Harlequin Englishman; or the Frenchman bit." The songs are printed in his "Poetical works," vol. 2.

1413. Same. Shakspeare versus Harlequin; or, Harlequin's invasion A broad farcical pantomimical drama. Founded on Garrick's celebrated drama, after the manner of the Italian comedy, called "Harlequin's invasion; or, a Christmas gambol." The overture and music, (with few exceptions) composed by Mr. Reeve and Mr. T. Cooke. Now performing at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane. London: printed by J. Tabby. 1820. (4), 36 pp. Sm. 8° G.3945.11

There is inserted a play-bill, announcing the first performance of this farce, April 8, 1820.

1414. The Jubilee. (26) pp. Manuscript. 4° G.3942.2

This is the original copy in Mr. Garrick's writing, and was bought by J. Britton at the sale of Mr. Waldron's books. The parts copied for the performers are in a different handwriting. The words of the songs are omitted. Genest says, vol. 5, p. 256, that the Drury Lane manuscript was burnt with the theatre in 1809. For the music of the "Jubilee," see No. 1291.

1415. Same. The Jubilee in honour of Shakespeare. A musical entertainment. As performed at the Theatre in Waterford. With additions. Waterford: printed by E. Crawley and son. 1773 32 pp. Sm. 8° G.3942.14

The text is very much altered.

1416. An ode upon dedicating a building, and erecting a statue, to Shakespeare, at Stratford upon Avon. By D. G. London: T. Becket, and P. A. De Hondt. 1769. (4), 34 pp. 4° G.3947.6; No. 5 in G.3942.4

The first copy is on large paper; the second lacks the last two pages. After the Ode is printed "Testimonies to the genius and merits of Shakespeare," by Jonson and others. No. 18 in G.40a.1 is a large engraving representing Garrick in the act of delivering the Ode.

Poetical works. London, 1785. 2 v. 8° 2549.19

Contains his "Ode," Prologues to "The fairies," "Florizel and Perdita," "Tempest," "Desart island," "Harlequin's invasion," "Much ado about nothing," and "Jubilee," also, Dirge in "Romeo and Juliet" and Songs in "Winter's tale," "Harlequin's invasion," "Jubilee," and songs at the Jubilee, 1769.

Nos. 12 and 13 in G.60a.17 are manuscript copies of his Prologues to "Winter's tale," "Desart Island" and "Much ado about nothing."

1417. Songs, chorusses, etc., which are introduced in the new entertainment of the Jubilee, at the Theatre Royal, in Drury Lane. London: T. Becket. 1770. (2), 18 pp. 8° G.3942.10

1418. Same. London: T. Becket. 1778. (2), 18 pp. 8° No. 11 in G.3942.3

A song commencing "This is, Sir, a Jubilee," has been added, and a stanza of the Roundelay and the verses commencing "Immortal be his name," have been omitted.

1419. Songs, chorusses, etc. in the musical afterpiece, called Garrick's Jubilee; as first performed at the Theatre-Royal, Drury-Lane, in 1769, and now revived, (under the direction of Mr. Farley), at the Theatre-Royal, Covent-Garden, 23d of April, 1816, being the second centenary of years from the death of Shakspeare, and in commemoration of the immortal genius of England's great dramatick bard; with a plan of the grand pageant of the characters of Shakspeare, by the whole of the company. London: J. Miller. 1816. 16 pp. 8° No. 10 in G.3942.3; G.3942.12

This contains two of the songs in "Harlequin's Invasion" and four from the "Jubilee," together with "Thou soft-flowing Avon."

1420. Thou soft flowing Avon, written in honor of Shakespear by Garrick. Composed by Dr. Arne. Arranged by J. Addison. 3 pp. F° No. 1 in G.4060.14

This piece is not published in his Poetical works.

The 32d history, which Douce says was "never printed in Latin," has been thought to be the source from which the story of the three caskets is drawn. It is reprinted in Collier's "Shakespeare's library," and in vol. 5 of Halliwell's folio edition, No. 90. Another story, similar to that of the bond, found in a "manuscript in the Harleian collection," is given in Douce's "Illustrations" and in Halliwell's edition. In the "Shakespeare's library," second edition vol. 2, is "The story of Lear," taken from Madden's edition of the "Gesta."

Giornata prima, novella seconda, the story of Bucciuolo and Pietro Paolo, is supposed to be one of the sources of the "Merry wives of Windsor," and Giornata quarta, novella prima, the adventures of Giannetto, has incidents similar to those in "The merchant of Venice." An English translation of these stories, with the Italian text, is given in Hazlitt's edition of the "Shakespeare's library," No. 1242. In Echtermeyer's "Quellen" are German translations, and in vol. 8 of Hugo's Shakespeare, No. 790, is a French version of the latter story. In Halliwell's folio edition, No. 90, the Italian text only of both tales is given. His "First sketch of Shakespeare's Merry wives of Windsor" contains both the Italian and English of the former.

Deca ottava, novella 5, is one of the sources of "Measure for measure." An English translation is given in "Shakespear illustrated." French and German translations are to be found in Hugo's Shakespeare and Echtermeyer's Quellen. A German version of the former story is also to be found in "Freya," 6tes Heft, 1864, No. 4 in G.3910.8. In Halliwell's folio edition the Italian text only of both stories is given. Hazlitt's edition of the "Shakespeare's library" gives only the Italian of the second story.

The author attempts to show that Shakespeare, in this play, has fathomed the great dynamical principle of modern history in Europe. He idealizes the various characters, as, for instance, "Hamlet's father — Unadulterated Christianity prior to the second century, ideal truth and justice. Ghost — Revival of Christianity — doubt." Appended is "A few words on Othello."

1630. Il sacrificio comedia, de gli intronati. Celebrato ne i givochi di vno carneuale in Siena. Di nuouo corretta, & ristampata. In Vinegia. Presso Domenico Caualcalupo. 1585. 69, (3) ff. Sm. 8° No. 5 in G.4074.11.1

Upon this play Shakespeare founded "Twelfth night." The Sacrificio is a sort of musical prelude, consisting of songs accompanied by sacrifices, to the play which follows under its proper title "Gl' Ingannati." This copy, which formerly belonged to B. H. Bright, is the one referred to by the Rev. Joseph Hunter in the following passage from his "New illustrations," vol. 1, p. 398. "I could almost persuade myself that the very volume in which the Sacrificio was first found by me had once been Shakespeare's, and that it contained the identical copies of the Inganni of Gonzaga, and the Ingannati or Sacrificio of the Thunderstruck Academicians, which had been used by him. It was at least a singular circumstance that they should be found bound together in the same volume, and the singularity was enhanced by the circumstance that another of the five comedies in the volume was the Viluppo, in which one of the characters is designated in the personæ as Orsino inamorato."

By Samuel Ireland. London: R. Faulder. 1795. xviii, 284, (1) pp. 30 plates. 2 portraits. 8° G.50.8; G.3952.3

G.50.8 is on large paper, and has, in addition, outline proofs of all but four of the plates. Only sixty copies were printed on large paper.

Mr. Ireland "navigated down this poetic and enchanting stream, attended by a very modest and well-informed man, Mr. John Jordan, who is by trade a wheelwright, and possesses considerable knowledge in history and antiquity, and is also no mean poet . . . Having a retentive memory, his knowledge of parochial antiquity all around him is wonderful. It was Mr. Jordan who gave Mr. Ireland his first information, on which he created his visionary falsehood." Gentleman's magazine, Oct., 1800.

Ireland, Samuel William Henry, 1777-1835.

1642. Ireland's Shaksperiana. A. D. 1796. Wm. Hy. Ireland. (24) ff. Manuscript. 4° G.166.4

Contents. Signatures to mortgage deed of Shakspear and Fraser; Signature of Elizabeth; Of Lord Southampton; Memorandum of fifty pounds received from Lord Leicester; Of playing before Lord Leicester; Signatures to the agreement between Shakspear and Lowin; To the agreement between Shakspear and Condell; To the deed of trust; To the deed of gift to Ireland; Promissory note to John Heminges; Receipt of John Heminges; First leaf of Vortigern.

One of Ireland's duplicate set of forgeries, bought from the collection of Edward Astle, all mounted and signed by him "W. H. I." Opposite the signature of Queen Elizabeth is a note by Ireland giving the origin of the forged letter of the Queen to Shakespeare. Inserted at the beginning of the volume is an undated letter, which closes with, "Pray excuse this scrawl, but I have had another night without a moment's sleep, and am more like a man drunk than in his senses."

1643. An authentic account of the Shaksperian manuscripts, etc. By W. H. Ireland. London: J. Debrett, 1796. (2), 43 pp. 8° No. 6 in G.3824.4; G.3953.20; 2597.28

1644. The confessions of William Henry Ireland. Containing the particulars of his fabrication of the Shakspeare manuscripts; together with anecdotes and opinions (hitherto unpublished) of many distinguished persons in the literary, political, and theatrical world. London. T Goddard. 1805. (8), 317, (17) pp. Frontispiece. 8° G.3953.32; G.3953.33; 2598.5

G.3953.32 belonged to John Caley, F.A.S., who has written upon the fly-leaf, "The passage in p. 225 alluding to me is not correct. I certainly did make many objections to the Papers, and upon the whole did NOT conceive them the productions of the Period to which they were ascribed, and it was for this reason I never would subscribe to their authenticity. J. C."

G.3953.33 belonged to Jno. Jones, Gray's Inn, who has written upon the fly-leaf, "A friend, from whom I had the following verses, informed me, that in the year 1796 Mr. Ireland was in the neighbourhood of Welch pool, Montgomeryshire, and being upon a visit at John Winder's Esq. of Venor Hall, Mrs. Winder requested Mr. Ireland to write a few lines on Avarice in the Shaksperian style; which he did impromptu as follows." There follow forty-two lines in blank verse, beginning

"Men's minds I liken to an ague fit,
That parches up the flesh with fev'rous heat."

1645. Same. A new edition with an introduction by Richard Grant White and additional fac-similes. New York: J. W. Bouton. 1874. xxxi, (6), 317, (17) pp. 5 plates. 12° 6597.20

In the Introduction is given an account of the Shakespeare forgeries by Peter Cunningham; see No. 1274.

1646. Henry the second, an historical drama, supposed to be written by the author of Vortigern. London: J. Barker. 1799. (2), iii, (1), 77, (1) pp. 8° G.3953.13; No. 2 in G.4016.37

Upon the title-page of G.3953.13 is written "My own copy for corrections, &c. Wm. Hy Ireland." It is interleaved and contains manuscript notes, together with an autograph letter from George Chalmers, dated Feb. 6, 1810, on the back of which is written the answer of Ireland, dated Feb. 17, 1810, in which he says, "With respect to my Confessions, as truth is after all the sterling criterion, I sincerely trust I shall profit by past experience."

1647. Vortigern, an historical tragedy, in five acts; represented at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, on Saturday, April 2, 1796. London: J. Barker. 1799. xi, (1), 77 pp. 8° No. 1 in G.4016.37

This copy is bound with "Henry the second," with a title-page covering both plays, but without a date. The preface was written by Samuel Ireland.

1648. Same. Vortigern; an historical play; with an original preface. By W. H. Ireland. Represented at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, on Saturday, April 2, 1796, as a supposed newly-discovered drama of Shakspeare. London: J. Thomas. 1832. (2), xv, (1), 58 pp. Fac-simile. 8° G.3953.14; 2597.31

G 3953.24 has manuscript notes. G.3953.26 is on large paper, of which only twenty-five copies were printed. It was a presentation copy from the author to Sir Wm. Scott. Inserted in it is an autograph letter of Malone, dated Dec. 12, 1808. At the end is a prospectus of an edition of Shakespeare in twenty volumes.

1816. A letter to Richard Farmer, relative to the edition of Shakspeare, published in 1790, and some late criticisms on that work. By Edmond Malone. London: G. G. J. and J. Robinson. 1792. (2), 39 pp. 8° No. 4 in G.3924.24; G.3936.33; 2455.2

A reply to Ritson's "Cursory criticisms." G.3924.24 has a few manuscript notes by T. Park.

1817. Same. The second edition. London: G. G. J. and J. Robinson. 1792. (4), 39 pp. 8° No. 3 in G.3943.15

The first edition unchanged save a page of corrections on the reverse of the half-title.

1818. The life of William Shakspeare, by the late Edmond Malone: and an essay on the phraseology and metre of the poet and his contemporaries, by James Boswell. With portraits. Twenty-one copies. Not printed for sale. [London: C. Baldwin, printer.] 1821. (4), 585 pp. Folded sheet. 8° G.3941.4

"This forms part of the first and the whole of the second of Malone's edition of Shakspeare, published in 1821," No. 55. The portraits are missing from this volume, but can be found in Boaden's Inquiry, G.3940.27.

1819. A second appendix to Mr. Malone's Supplement to the last edition of the plays of Shakspeare: containing additional observations by the editor of the Supplement. London: 1783. iii, (1), 67 pp. 8° G.3936.32

50 copies were printed. There are a few manuscript corrections, evidently by the author, as this is a presentation copy.

Editor of Shakespeare's works, Nos. 30 and 32.

Malone's text was adopted in many of the editions published after 1790. In G 3936.39 are several cuttings, etc. relating to him. In No. 4 in G.604.17 there are two Proposals for editions by him and a circular disclaiming the editorship of an edition published in seven volumes about 1792. A portrait of Malone is to be found in G.60.8.1.

The first edition, in which Theobald is made the hero for a slighting reference, in his "Shakespeare restored," to Pope's edition of Shakespeare. This is a copy in octavo on large paper, and bears upon the title-page the words "Ex dono authoris. To Walter Harte. Who gave it to my Father. J. Warton." The ordinary copies of this edition are in duodecimo, but one copy in octavo is mentioned in Notes and Queries, 1st series, vol. 10, p. 477, as being in the British Museum. It is possible that a few copies were struck off in this form for presents. The names are filled in in manuscript.

Editor of Shakespeare's works, Nos. 14, 19 and 25.

Pope's Preface is printed in editions, Nos. 14, 19, 20, 23, 24, 26, 27, 31, 32, 39, 41, 42, 44, 48, 51, 55, 830 and in Bell's edition, G.86.5.11.

Rich, Barnaby.

2004. Eight novels employed by English dramatic poets of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Originally published by Barnaby Riche in the year 1581, and reprinted from a copy of that date in the Bodleian library. London: Shakespeare society. 1846. xvi, 224 pp. 8° G.3927.7; 4596.15

Contents. Preface by J. P. Collier; Dedication, etc. by Rich; Sappho duke of Mantona; Apolonius and Silla; Nicander and Lucilla; Fineo and Fiamma; Two brethren and their wives; Gonsales and his vertuous wife Agatha; Aramanthus, borne a leper; Phylotus and Emilia.

In the original edition, the title is "Riche his farewell to militarie profession." The incidents of the first novel are similar to those in the play, "The weakest goeth to the wall." Those of the second are similar to the story upon which Shakespeare founded his "Twelfth night." This latter novel is reprinted in Malone's edition, No. 55, Collier's "Shakespeare's library," Nos. 1240–1242, and Halliwell's folio edition, vol. 7, No. 90.

IN the preparation of this Catalogue of the Shakespeare portion of the Barton Library, I have had the constant assistance of Mr. Arthur Mason Knapp, the Librarian in charge of Bates Hall. The preliminary work of cataloguing the Shakespeariana was in great part done by him. He has also carefully read the proofs of the whole Catalogue, thereby adding greatly to its accuracy and trustworthiness. In particular, any credit which may attach to the article Portraits should belong to him.

I also desire to express my grateful acknowledgments to Mr. Justin Winsor, the present accomplished Librarian of Harvard University and the former Superintendent of this Library, for generously placing at my disposal out of his store of bibliographical knowledge whatever he thought could assist me in my work. He has kindly read over the proofs, making numerous corrections and suggestions. In many cases I have availed myself of these, while in many others the plan of the Catalogue prevented me from so doing.

To J. O. Halliwell-Phillipps, F.S.A. of England, Prof. Karl Elze of Halle, Germany, and J. Parker Norris, Esq. of Philadelphia, I am indebted for assistance and encouragement in my work. To the city printers, Messrs. Rockwell and Churchill, I am under great obligations for the pains which they have taken with their work and their constant endeavors to meet my wishes in every point.

I have also to thank the Trustees of the Boston Public Library for the perfect freedom given me in preparing the Catalogue on the plan which in my judgment seemed best.

JAMES MASCARENE HUBBARD.
